

Prediction On Meat Price Cutting May Be Over-Optimistic

BY OVID A. MARTIN
Associated Press Farm Reporter

Washington, Oct. 14. (P)—Government forecasts of a boost in meat supplies—and lower prices—by late 1949 may be over-optimistic.

Made chiefly by the agriculture department, these predictions have been based largely on the fact that, at the moment, the relationship between feed prices and livestock prices is very favorable for producing meat animals.

This year's record grain crop has pulled down costs of feed, while livestock prices have remained relatively high.

But reports from the corn belt, where the bulk of the nation's meat supply comes from, indicate that farmers are not jumping in to expand livestock production as much as the department had expected.

These reports say many farmers fear that prices may drop sharply by the time new meat animals can be produced, fattened and marketed.

This view was expressed by Carl C. Malone, Iowa State college economist, before an agriculture department farm outlook conference here this week. He was supported by several economists from other western corn belt states.

Malone, somewhat to the surprise of department officials, said he does not believe farmers will meet the government's goal of a 60,000,000 - head 1949 spring pig crop. Such a goal must be met if there is to be a big jump in pork supplies next year. It compares with this year's spring crop of 51,000,000.

Malone said many farmers in Iowa—the major corn-hog state—prefer to put their corn under government price support loans and thereby escape any risk that might be involved in feeding the grain to livestock.

Costly Coal Tieup Continues In France

Rail Traffic Resumed; Taxi Drivers Back

By ROBERT C. WILSON
Paris, Oct. 14. (P)—The French Communist strike offensive appeared to be ebbing today, but the costly coal mine tieup continued.

Rail traffic was reported almost normal. Throughout the nation rail workers were going back to their jobs after a week of sporadic walkouts.

In Paris, taxis reappeared after a week-long drivers' strike.

In eastern France 40,000 iron miners and metal workers returned after a three-week stoppage.

The nationwide coal strike remained the biggest problem. The 11-day walkout of 335,000 miners has cost France almost 1,500,000 tons of coal.

No fighting was reported between idle miners and police, but neither were negotiations underway to end the tieup.

Informed labor observers said the Communists, failing to pull off a general rail strike, now were concentrating on keeping the coal strike going.

Government officials said the costly stoppage was aiding the Cominform's drive against the European recovery plan.

Marquette Voters Elect New Mayor

Marquette, (P)—Marquette's new mayor is John J. O'Neil, railroad machinist, who defeated incumbent James J. Beckman 2,767 to 1,402. City Commissioner Allan F. Olson also lost out, bowing to L. W. Brumm 2,857 to 1,263 votes.

WROTE BOGUS CHECKS
Grand Haven, (P)—Rudolph Schriener, 33, of Chicago, got a prison sentence of 18 months Wednesday for passing 160 worthless checks totaling $2,760 in Michigan, Illinois and Wisconsin.

Truman And Dewey Stump In Midwest
Kansas City Invaded By GOP Nominee

(By The Associated Press)
Gov. Thomas E. Dewey headed his Republican caravan today for Kansas City, onetime Democratic stronghold where President Truman made his political bow 26 years ago.

Making his second campaign swing across Mr. Truman's home state of Missouri, the GOP presidential candidate switched from his sharp attacks on the president's handling of foreign affairs to a "good government" theme.

Mr. Truman meanwhile pushed his vote hunt through Minnesota and Wisconsin, where he is scheduled to make a major talk tonight in Milwaukee. The Democratic standard bearer stressed a plea at St. Paul for the "right kind of unity" to provide peace and prosperity for this country.

Dewey moves into Minnesota tomorrow after a major address tonight in Kansas City. The New York governor hammered away at the unity and peace theme in yesterday's heavy round of speeches in Oklahoma.

"The time has come," he told an Oklahoma City rally, "for national leadership which will measure up to our devotion to peace."

Pledging to "mobilize the strength of this immensely productive country" to forestall any attack, Dewey said:

"The plain fact is that strength—economic, military, and moral strength—is a stark grim necessity if we are to live and go forward. Free nations must be strong or they will lose their freedoms. Peace-loving nations must be strong—or there can be no peace."

Democrats Leading In Alaska Election
Juneau, Alaska, Oct. 14. (P)—Democrats continued to pile up lead in major territorial offices today in the Alaska election.

Congressional Delegate E. L. Bartlett, a Democrat who sits in congress without a vote, held a lead of 11,803 to 3,511 over his Republican opponent, R. H. Stock of Anchorage, with 73 of the territory's 225 precincts reported.

The territory was strongly on record in favor of abolishing fish traps. The vote was 13,452 to 1,648. The vote does not have the force of law but will be merely a recommendation to Congress for gradual removal of the fish traps.

NEW CARS OUT SOON
Flint, Mich., Oct. 14. (P)—Buick division of General Motors will begin assembly line production of its 1949 model automobiles on Nov. 1.

Trade circles expect the new Buick cars will be introduced around Thanksgiving Day.

Union Of Printers Cited For Contempt
Federal Judge Orders Officers Into Court

Indianapolis, Oct. 14. (P)—Federal Judge Luther M. Swygert today held the International Typographical Union in contempt of court and ordered the union to abide by his injunction in dealing with employers.

The judge set no penalty, but ordered officers of the union to appear in court within ten days to show that they have complied with the court decree.

The judge's opinion said the union has attempted to discriminate against newspaper employees in violation of the Taft-Hartley law and contrary to the court's injunction in making contracts. He ordered that this be discontinued.

The court action today was a victory for the attorney for the National Labor Relations Board, who had asked the judge to hold the printers' union in contempt.

The judge ordered today that the union should not discriminate against non-members in its contracts.

Nation Gets Taste Of Indian Summer
Chicago, Oct. 14. (P)—Indian summer blossomed officially over most of the nation today.

The U. S. Weather Bureau said so. Daytime temperatures in the north central section between the Rockies and Appalachians run generally in the 60's.

The forecast is more of the same.

Council Faces New Big-Power Deadlock On Berlin Blockade

Neutral Nations Give Up Efforts For Peace

BY JOSEPH E. DYNAN
Paris, Oct. 14. (P)—The United Nations security council meets tomorrow to take up the Berlin crisis once again, faced by a new big-power deadlock.

The six "neutrals" of the council abandoned their efforts to mediate. Argentine Foreign Minister Juan A. Bramuglia, acting chairman of the council for the Berlin discussions, called the council meeting after receiving a Russian reply to the neutrals on what terms would be acceptable to Moscow.

Answer Not Revealed
The Russian answer was not made public. Authoritative sources said it rejected mediation, insisted the Berlin issue was outside the authority of the security council, and asked that negotiations be referred to the Aug. 30 four-power Moscow agreement. Under this the Russians would raise the blockade. And the Western powers would withdraw their currency from Berlin, leaving only Soviet zone currency under four-power supervision.

Western power spokesmen did not comment on whether this might represent a retreat from additional Soviet demands made at the Berlin level of the negotiations, on which the talks broke down. The Russians in Berlin demanded the right to control air traffic to Berlin as part of the currency control.

Back At Beginning
An informed source said the Russian reply put the situation back where it was when the mediation efforts began. The neutrals—Argentina, Canada, Belgium, Colombia, Syria and China—reported they had proposed lifting of the blockade simultaneously with the calling of a four-power foreign ministers council meeting on Germany.

The United States, Britain and France, holding the blockade a menace to world peace and within the province of the security council, have contended that it must be lifted before a foreign ministers meeting can be convened.

The security council was summoned today to take up a report on Palestine from the Holy Land truce commission.

Pacific War Hero, Capt. Colin Kelly, Buried In Florida

Madison, Fla., Oct. 14. (P)—Capt. Colin Kelly, hailed seven years ago as the first hero of the war in the Pacific, lies buried today amid the scenes of his boyhood at this small north Florida town.

Full military honors marked the burial yesterday of the young flier who was killed when his plane crashed soon after he had bombed the Japanese battleship Haruna. At Kelly's command, the crew members parachuted to safety.

Kelly's death won him personal praise from President Roosevelt, and he was posthumously awarded the distinguished service cross and the distinguished flying cross.

Among the hundreds of mourners at the graveside service were Kelly's parents, his young widow who has since remarried, and his eight-year-old son, Colin III.

Slaying of Detroit Fugitive by Posse Ruled Justifiable

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 14. (P)—A six-man coroner's jury last night termed "justifiable homicide" the Sunday shooting of a fugitive by a 19-year-old posse member.

A packed court room heard 10 witnesses testify that Kenneth McAllister had been instructed by police to shoot if necessary during a search for Roosevelt Perkins, 33-year-old Detroit Negro who fled after driving a stolen car into an accident near Saline.

McAllister told of sighting Perkins, ordering him to halt, and when the fugitive ignored him firing his deer rifle with the intent of wounding him.

Perkins died instantly from a wound in the back.

Grand Rapids Movie House Is Padlocked For Obscene Films

Grand Rapids, Oct. 14. (P)—A padlock greeted patrons of a downtown movie house today after a police complaint of an immoral film showing.

The theater was closed for 30 days on orders of City Manager Frank H. Gobles, who viewed the confiscated pictures with other officials.

Charged with possession of obscene films, Archie Rose, 37, of Detroit, was fined $50 and costs in police court yesterday. He pleaded guilty.

Suspended sentences on disorderly charges were given Alice Donaker, 21, acting manager of the theater; Robert Gilson, 18, concessionaire, and Arthur Jensen, 39, projectionist.

Escanaba Without Phone Service; Plant, Traffic Employees Not At Work

Because of an unannounced walkout involving 55 switchboard operators and 13 plant employees of the local Michigan Bell Telephone company exchange, residents of Escanaba were without telephone service today.

Only extreme emergency calls were being handled by a skeleton crew composed of switchboard supervisors. For the ordinary routine business or social call, all the would-be telephone user heard today was the now familiar recording:

"We are sorry, but because of the strike we are able to handle only emergency calls. If you have an emergency call, please flash on this connection for your operator."

Escanaba was one of nine cities in the Upper Peninsula and 19 in the state where telephone service was curtailed because of an employee strike over a wage dispute. Other U. P. exchanges involved were those at Marquette, Sault Ste. Marie, Ishpeming, Iron Mountain, Crystal Falls, Iron River, Newberry and Ironwood.

During the telephone strike, Escanaba taxicabs will cruise streets to serve public waiting transportation. Persons waiting rides at night are asked to leave porch lights on.

Strikes also were underway at Saginaw, Cadillac, Bay City, Jackson, Ypsilanti, Ann Arbor, Royal Oak and at three exchanges in Detroit.

Without advance warning to the telephone management here or the public, traffic and plant employees of the Escanaba exchange did not show up for work this morning.

George Marcoullier, manager of the Escanaba exchange, said the operators were scheduled to be at work at 7 a. m. today, and the plant employees were supposed to be on the job at 8 a. m.

The walkout was termed an "unauthorized strike" inasmuch as plant employee wage contracts do not expire until November 1, 1949, traffic employee contracts are in effect until November 20, 1949, and because the strike is not general, it was explained.

There was no indication when the strike would end. The Escanaba exchange and 18 others in the state were picketed during the day.

The company said 64,000 manually-operated phones were silenced in the first hour or two of the strike. There are about 1,600,000 telephones in the state.

Operators at Sault Ste. Marie Walked Off the Job. At Escanaba, they simply didn't report for work this morning.

The widespread demonstration, largest since wage negotiations began months ago, came 24 hours before labor mediators began a last-ditch effort to engineer a settlement.

Gov. Sigler has called a conference for Friday to avert a formal strike of 10,500 operators, members of Division 44, Communications Workers of America (Ind.).

Division 44 and its companion union, Division 43, made up of 8,000 plant maintenance men, are demanding a 13 cents an hour wage increase, equivalent to $5.20 a week.

Michigan Bell has offered from $3 to $6 a week to division 43 employees and from $2 to $5 to the operators.

Mail Order House Sends Catalogs to Troops in Germany

Chicago, (P)—American troops and civilians in Germany will get copies of Sears, Roebuck and Company's Christmas catalog this week—just as soon as it is available to the home folks.

The first batch of 7,000,000 copies was in the mail today for customers in the nation's towns and on the farms. But distribution of the gift book, largest ever issued by Sears, has already begun in the American zone in Germany.

A shipment of catalogs was sent to Frankfurt by plane several days ago.

The 1948 Christmas catalog contains 310 pages—24 more than last year.

Brucker Is Still Looking For Black

Detroit, Oct. 14. (P)—Former Governor Wilbur M. Brucker continued efforts today to serve Attorney General Eugene F. Black a declaration accusing him of "vindictive" and "completely false" statements.

The declaration, intended to support Brucker's $500,000 slander suit against Black, must be served while Black is in Wayne county on unofficial business.

The document was filed in Wayne county circuit court Wednesday.

Brucker at the time said Black has "sneaked in at night to avoid service" of the summons which would place him in the jurisdiction of a local court.

Republicans Offer South Best Chance, Says Senator Taft

St. Petersburg, Fla., Oct. 14. (P)—Senator Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio) told an audience here that the program of the Republican party—not President Truman's platform—is closer to the interests of the South.

"I don't believe the South wants the high prices, big spending and regimentation of the Truman program," Taft declared in a speech here yesterday. "I believe it wants progress under as much individual, local and state liberty as possible."

In its views on labor, too, Taft continued, the South is closer to the Republicans than to President Truman.

"Southern Democrats who supported the Taft-Hartley law and over-rode the president's veto have no reason to vote for Truman," the Ohio senator said.

LAYOFFS FOR ECONOMY
Detroit, (P)—The street railway department began an economy program Wednesday by laying off 40 workers. Dismissal of 164 employees is planned in a move to cut costs an estimated $1,812,607.

Secret Talks Map Defense of Pacific

Tokyo, Oct. 14. (P)—American commanders in the Pacific and Alaska discussed measures to prevent another Pearl Harbor in a series of top secret conferences with General Douglas MacArthur ending today.

The problem of Pacific defenses brought together key officers of the army, navy and air force guarding the northwestern and far eastern frontiers of the United States.

Airforce Lt. Gen. Nathan F. Twining, commanding the Alaska defenses, and Vice Admiral John L. McCrea, deputy commander of the U. S. Pacific fleet, met with General MacArthur for three days.

They met within view of Japan's imperial palace grounds—just across the moat from the big white building housing Allied headquarters—where the Dec. 7, 1941, attack on the U. S. Pacific fleet received final sanction.

Informed sources confined information on the talks to two points:

1. The American commanders discussed with General MacArthur practical precautions against the possibility of another surprise attack.

2. The high-ranking officers attained a "fine spirit of cooperation and coordination" among the army, navy and air force. This was described as an outstanding achievement.

Agreement to work together in the Pacific followed the general

Arrest Of Pontiac Gangsters Ordered

Pontiac, Mich., Oct. 14. (P)—Circuit Judge George B. Hartick today issued bench warrants for the immediate arrest of Harry Fleisher and Mike Selik, convicted of the Aristocrat club holdup.

He ordered bonds of $25,000 each for both Fleisher and Selik forfeited.

The two were supposed to appear before Judge Hartick this morning to begin prison sentences for the holdup. Their bondsmen were unable to produce them.

The state supreme court Wednesday denied a stay of sentence asked by Fleisher and Selik.

They were convicted in 1945 before Judge Hartick of the club robbery at Pontiac. Their trial was an outgrowth of K. Sigler's investigation into the slaying of State Sen. Warren Hooper.

With three other defendants, Selik and Fleisher were sentenced to serve sentences ranging from 20 to 40 years for the holdup.

Gambling On MSC Football Disclosed

East Lansing, Mich., Oct. 14. (P)—Campus police at Michigan State college today cracked down on three students charged with selling football pool tickets for a national gambling syndicate.

Detective Charles Becker said the three were picked up with a number of pool tickets for games this weekend in their possession. Becker said warrants would be asked charging them with illegal possession of gambling devices.

Campus police estimated the "take" at the college at several thousand dollars weekly. Under the system, players were asked to pick the winners of a number of prominent collegiate games each weekend. Right selections paid off, but campus police said the games were picked so the winners were few and the profits large.

The player had to pick all the games right to win and in most cases a tie eliminated the entry.

Police said the tickets they seized bore the name of the "mid-west" syndicate. They said they were also trying to catch up with solicitors for two other pools they identified as "Collegiate Football Parlays" and "National Football Forecast."

The campus police said they also seized a list of names of students who played the pool and that list "would be kept for future reference." Students participating in the pool would not be prosecuted, however, it was indicated.

Delta Drafts Report For Processing Today

Army Recruiters Explain Procedure Here

Men from Delta county called for examination under the Selective Service Act will report today to the Escanaba U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force recruiting station for processing.

The 25-year-old age group will be called for processing first, and such calls are dependent upon the demands made by the State Selective Director upon the local boards.

Sufficient numbers of men must be supplied for examination in order to fill quotas of selectees acceptable for service prior to 21 days before actual induction. The local station has made preparations for these pre-induction examinations in October, in order to have qualified selectees for actual induction into the Armed Services in November.

The state director will indicate the number of men to be prepared for processing examinations prior to actual induction in an average ratio of five men examined for each man inducted into the service. Men registered under the Selective Service Act, who enlist or return to active duty in any of the services prior to call for examination, will be credited to the quota of the local board, and deducted from their actual number of selectees called into the Service by that board.

The local board will notify the pre-induction selectee, by mail, to appear at a designated assembly point to be transported, at government expense, to the local recruiting station for examination.

Names of qualified selectees are placed on file by the local board, and the selectees are called according to demands made upon the board by the state director. These men may be called at any time after 21 days from date of initial processing. Under the law, no induction can take place in less than 21 days after the pre-induction examination.

When a qualified selectee is notified by the local board to report for actual induction, he is returned to the same recruiting station where the initial examination took place, and here he is given an additional physical inspection. If no change in physical status is revealed, he is then sworn into service and his papers are completed. After a brief orientation, he is then transported to one of the various training centers, depending upon the location of his home.

Men inducted from Michigan, Wisconsin and Illinois will be ordered to the 101st Airborne Division, Camp Breckinridge, Ky.

EXTEND SEASON ON WHITEFISH

Wisconsin Commission Makes Changes

Madison, Wis.—Satisfied that the whitefish in Lake Michigan, Green bay and Lake Superior are more abundant today than at any time in a decade, the conservation commission Tuesday approved a relaxation of the fall closed season on that most valuable product of Wisconsin fisheries.

Under the commission's order, fishermen will be allowed to take whitefish under special permit until Oct. 25. The normal closed season prevails from Oct. 10 to Nov. 25.

In other amendments of existing commercial fishing laws, the commission approved the legalization of commercial harvesting of northern pike and wall-eyed pike in Door county, and a reduction of the size limit for perch taken in Lake Michigan to eight inches from eight and one-half inches.

The perch order was approved, fisheries division officials explained, to make the rule consistent with the size limit of eight inches which has been enforced for Green Bay.

The fisheries division originally had intended to push the Green Bay perch size limit up to eight and one-half inches, but it had failed to win commission approval. Tuesday's action evidently means that the eight inch limit will remain state policy for an indefinite time.

Whitefish numbers in Wisconsin outlying waters have increased immensely in recent years, the commission was told. In Lake Superior ports the harvest is now more than three times as great as it was in 1939.

TIME QUESTION BALLOT REVISED

Includes Choice Of CST For Winter Months

At the Nov. 2 general election Delta county voters will be offered the opportunity to vote on the "time question", a vote whose result will not be binding on the cities of Escanaba and Gladstone but is placed before the county as a whole because it was authorized by the county board of supervisors.

Today the form of the ballot was revised by Prosecutor J. Clyde McGonagle following a conversation with Supervisor Omer Tanguay of Bark River, on whose motion the board authorized the preparation of the ballot.

As first proposed the ballot would carry only the question of whether the county should remain on Eastern Standard Time, or Central Standard Time, the year around.

In his motion, Sup. Tanguay asked that the ballot contain the questions: Should the county have Eastern Standard and Central Standard Time in the winter. The ballot as approved by the prosecutor today will read as follows: "This referendum is submitted to determine whether Delta county should adopt (1) Eastern Standard (fast) Time throughout the year OR (2) adopt a schedule of Eastern Standard Time during the summer months and Central Standard Time during the winter months."

"Indicate your preference by placing a cross (X) in the square opposite the Time schedule you desire."

"Eastern Standard (fast) Time the year around."

"Eastern Standard Time during summer and Central Standard Time during winter."

The county board authorized the clerk to prepare the ballot according to the instructions of the prosecuting attorney, and the action of the board was reached only after considerable discussion. The supervisors voted 17 to 9 in favor of placing the question a county-wide ballot.

Matti V. Wisti, Rock Resident, Dies Last Night

Matti Victor Wisti, 71, a resident of Rock for many years, died at 8:15 o'clock last evening at the Delta Convalescent Home.

Mr. Wisti, who was unmarried, was born in Wimpeli, Vaasan, Lammi, Finland March 26, 1877 and he came to the United States 40 years ago. He had lived in Rock for the past 30 years.

Surviving are several nieces and nephews in this country and in Finland, among them William Wisti and Mrs. John Mayala of Barron, Wis., and Henry Perala of Nankin, Minn.

The body was taken to the Anderson funeral home. Arrangements for the services are incomplete.

O'Neil and Brumm Win in Marquette

Marquette, Mich.—John J. O'Neil, South Shore railroad mechanic, Tuesday was elected mayor of Marquette for a five-year term beginning next Jan. 1, while L. W. Brumm, private contractor, was chosen commissioner for the term ending Dec. 31, 1951.

The result, by overwhelming majorities in both cases, puts into office two men publicly committed to work for a change in the "city hall setup." Both were endorsed by the Marquette Taxpayers' association and the Labor League for Political Education and both have expressed dissatisfaction, not with the city manager form of government but with the granting of power given the present holder of that office.

O'Neil defeated Mayor James J. Beckman by 1,365 votes, 2,767 to 1,402. He carried eight of the city's 10 precincts, losing only 3-A and 3-B to Beckman.

Brumm, critic of commission action for the last year, swept every precinct and ran up better than a 2-1 margin over his opponent, Allan F. Olson. The vote was: Brumm, 2,857; Olson, 1,263.

C-C Meets Friday Noon In National Affairs Session

The directors, members and the public is invited to attend a luncheon meeting at 12:15 tomorrow in the Delta hotel sponsored by the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce, when plans for a national affairs local committee will be discussed.

The meeting is a follow-up to regional national affairs conference held in Escanaba recently, at which representatives of the United States Chamber of Commerce discussed legislation and other matters affecting the local economy. Chamber of Commerce representatives from many Upper Peninsula communities attended.

C. Howard Smith, U. S. Chamber of Commerce advisor, will attend and speak at tomorrow's local meeting on national affairs.

Establishment of a local national affairs committee, similar to those in other communities, will be helpful in obtaining cooperative action on questions vitally affecting the communities.

Interested persons, as well as Chamber of Commerce members and directors, are expected to attend.

Layoff Notice Given 29 Delta Highway Employees

To reduce the out-go of fast-dwindling road funds and still maintain a skeleton organization to handle minimum maintenance needs 29 field employees of the Delta county road commission yesterday afternoon were given one-week notice of layoff.

William Karas, superintendent-engineer, acting with the approval of Commission Chairman Harry Greene of Garden, called all of the employees together at the garage at Wells yesterday afternoon and announced the names of the 29 who received notices.

Chairman Greene will call a special meeting of the commission for Saturday when formal action on the layoff will be taken. Other members of the commission are Hilding Norstrom of Gladstone and Henry Wylie of Escanaba.

The 29 field employees who received notices represent approximately one-half of the road commission's total of 54 employees. The number of employees has already been reduced to 54 from a total of 94 at the beginning of the year, Karas reported.

The proposed reduction, which will be effective next Wednesday, will take employees from the various districts as follows:

Of the crew working out of the central garage at Wells, 11 of 25 were given notice; at Rapid River 8 of 15; at Garden 4 of 6; at Rock 4 of 6; and at Bark River 2 men will be withdrawn and the garage closed to about January 1. On that date it is proposed to send only the foreman back. Meanwhile operations in the Bark River area will be taken care of from Wells as was done before the Bark River district garage was built.

The road commission's administrative force has been reduced by 50 per cent (from 4 to 2) since the first of the year, Karas said.

The notice of layoff to the 29 field employees yesterday was on the basis of seniority ratings.

Superintendent Karas advised the employees of the financial condition of the county road department and said that available funds would meet expenses only to Nov. 15. He told the employees that they would be welcome to return to their jobs when the emergency is over, if they so desire and have not found other work at better pay with the assurance of year-around employment.

The county board of supervisors in recent session appointed a committee to arrange an advancement of $40,000 in tax money to the county road commission, a loan to be repaid next spring. A special session of the board is contemplated for Dec. 1 to further consider county road financing.

Some members of the board of supervisors questioned whether the road commission should not have reduced its operations earlier in the year so that funds would be available for snow removal. The layoff notices, which will help stretch the funds on hand, may have been in answer to that criticism.

Wintertime will bring the costly problem of snow removal. Karas advised the county board the cost of snow removal would be approximately $44,000, and that additional $39,000 will be needed to finance minimum operations between Jan. 1 and April 1, 1949, when no funds are received from the state.

St. Norbert's Plans Homecoming Events For October 23

West De Pere, Wis.—The 50th homecoming celebration at St. Norbert college will be held Oct. 23 with a day-long program planned for alumni. The college observed its golden jubilee anniversary Oct. 10, having been founded on that date, 1898, by Abbot B. H. Pennings, O. Praem., who still is active as its president.

Homecoming day will open with a solemn mass in St. Joseph's church on the campus. The mass, at 10 o'clock, will be celebrated by the Rev. Vincent C. Savageau, O. Praem., only surviving member of the first class of four students. He is now a parish priest in Even, Mich.

Alumni and their ladies will be guests at a dean's reception from 2 to 5 p. m. Oct. 23 in the college residence hall. Hosts at the reception will be the Rev. A. J. Keefe, O. Praem., dean, and officers of the St. Norbert Alumni association.

The homecoming football game will be held at 7:15 p. m. in Minahan Memorial stadium. The game will pit the St. Norbert team against Loras college of Dubuque, Ia., which has a string of 12 consecutive wins.

The game is starting 45 minutes earlier than usual to allow alumni to attend an informal get-together in the main dining room of the Beaumont hotel in Green Bay. The get-together will begin at 10 o'clock.

St. Norbert students will hold a homecoming dance Friday evening, Oct. 22 in the Central Catholic high school auditorium, Green Bay. They will also hold the traditional homecoming parade through the streets of DePere and Green Bay Saturday afternoon beginning at 3 p. m. The parade will feature floats designed and constructed by merchants, industrial companies and students. Homecoming officials are arranging for five marching bands to appear in the parade which will swing through east and west DePere and Green Bay.

WHALE SUICIDE STILL MYSTERY

44 Beached Themselves On Florida Coast

Washington, (SS)—Zoologists have never been able to find the reason for the suicidal "follow-the-leader" tactics of the pilot whale or blackfish, which caused a school of 44 of them to beach themselves near St. Augustine, Fla. This peculiar behavior is shared by a related species, the false killer whale, stated Dr. Remington Kellogg of the U. S. National Museum.

There used to be a small rendering plant on Nantucket, to salvage the carcasses of pilot-whale schools coming ashore on the North Atlantic coast. Its owner, Howard Wardell, would send a fleet of trucks to pick up the luckless little whales. This plant has now closed down, due to scarcity of raw material.

Scottish fishermen on the Orkney islands, and Danes on the Faroes, still take advantage of these chance harvests, and even help to drive the animals ashore by pounding on cans and tubs held in the water.

Beached whales do not die as fish die. They are air-breathing mammals, depending on lungs, not gills. However, when their bulky bodies are not buoyed up in the water, their own weight crushes them down, making them unable to breathe. So they die of suffocation, as a man might if he lay on

INCINERATORS FOR HOMES

Incinerators which eliminate the unsightly and hard-to-clean garbage can are now being made for the private house as well as apartment buildings.

Sponge Fishery May Aid Economy Of Philippines

Washington, (SS)—Sponge fishing may help the Philippine republic to build up its national economy, if preliminary promises of a survey being conducted for the Philippine government by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service are made good on a larger scale.

Known sponging grounds in waters adjacent to the islands are chiefly in the Sulu and Celebes seas.

A minute beginning of a sponge-fishing industry was made in the Philippines before the war. There were two boats, carrying four divers and eight crewmen.

If sponges can be obtained on a large scale in the Philippines it will help the world as well as the islands themselves. Commercial sponge fishing is now confined to just two areas in the world: the Mediterranean sea and the Caribbean-Gulf region in the Western Hemisphere, and yields are falling off.

Estimated world production of sponges decreased from 2,450,000 pounds in 1933 to 260,000 pounds in 1947. The United States industry, confined to the west coast of Florida, yielded 606,000 pounds in 1933, and only 158,000 in 1947. Prices have increased so much, due to the scarcity of good sponges that the small 1947 sponge crop brought nearly as much money as the four-times-larger 1933 yield.

Season a pound of lean ground beef with finely grated onion, salt and pepper and a tablespoon or so of tomato juice or milk. Shape into large flat cake and broil until done; turn with two pancake turners if desired. Dust with paprika and dry mustard and dot with butter or margarine before serving.

WHAT DO YOU THINK MICHIGAN BELL'S WAGE POLICY SHOULD BE?

Should we pay wages WELL BELOW the general level of LOCAL WAGES?

If we did, that would not be fair to Michigan Bell employees who do the work.

If we did, we wouldn't be able to obtain or keep the kind of employees needed to provide good telephone service . . . and it wouldn't be long before the quality of service declined seriously.

Certainly, you WOULDN'T like that, would you?

Should we pay wages WELL ABOVE the general level of LOCAL WAGES?

If we did, that would mean excessively high telephone rates for you and our other customers . . . yet you would have no other place to turn for lower cost telephone service.

If we did, Michigan Bell employees would be receiving preferred wage treatment at the expense of their neighbors who would be paying the bill.

Certainly, you WOULDN'T like that, would you?

Should we pay wages IN LINE with the general level of LOCAL WAGES?

If we did, that would be fair to our employees who do the work . . . because they would be getting wages that compared favorably with those received by their neighbors.

If we did, that would be fair to our customers who pay the bills . . . because they would be getting good service at the lowest possible cost.

Certainly, you WOULD like that, wouldn't you?

MICHIGAN BELL BELIEVES IT SHOULD—

Pay wages in each community that compare well with those paid by other employers in that community for work requiring similar skill and experience.

Michigan Bell believes that is the only fair wage policy it can have . . . fair to telephone employees . . . fair to telephone customers.

Certainly, you AGREE with that, don't you?

We make regular surveys comparing telephone wages with "outside" wages to assure that our wage policy is carried out. In accordance with this wage policy, we have made an offer to the Telephone Unions. Our offer would keep telephone wages at a favorable level in this community through an increase of $2 to $4 a week, depending on job and experience. The Unions have not accepted this offer. They think that increases should be larger and without regard to the general level of local wages. That is the crux of our problem in negotiations with the Unions.

WEEKLY WAGES IN ESCANABA

Based on Our Offer

These are basic wages for a five-day week. They do not include extra payments for Sunday, holiday, evening or night work.

Beginners' rates apply generally to girls and young men just out of school who have had no previous experience. Persons with experience start at higher rates in keeping with their qualifications.

(the largest group of women employees)

Beginner's rate	$27
Rate after one year	$32
Rate after two years	$34
Top rate	$42

When the regular five-day work week consists of evening hours and one evening is a Sunday, the resulting extra payments mean that an operator with 18 months' service, for example, could earn up to $39.80 a week.

STENOGRAPHERS

without previous experience start at the same weekly rate of pay as operators. However, regular raises would take them to a top basic pay rate per week as follows:

Stenographers	$47
---------------	------

LINEMEN AND INSTALLERS

Beginner's rate	$28
Rate after one year	$34
Rate of two years	$38
Top rate	$61

CABLE SPLICERS AND SWITCHBOARD REPAIRMEN

Cable Splicers (maximum rate)	$66
Switchboard Repairmen (maximum rate)	$66

Cable splicers and switchboard repairmen generally are transferred to this work from other telephone crafts and periodic increases would bring them to the top basic rates per week.

Relief Rolls Move Up In September

Lansing, (AP)—Direct relief rolls took another upward swing in September, the state social welfare commission reported.

W. J. Maxey, state welfare director, said the relief case load rose 213 cases to 27,958. He attributed the increase to supplemental relief orders for clothing and shoes normally granted at the start of a school year.

Old age assistance, Maxey said, declined 19 cases to a total of 90,766, while aid to dependent children fell 122 cases to 21,552, both contrary to the national trend.

Maxey said the reduction was due to a closer check on the resources of applicants and recipients for aid under both programs.

Saturday Night's Barber Shop Show Program Announced

Barber shop quartets from Milwaukee, Appleton, Sheboygan, Madison, Marinette and Green Bay, Wis., and from Marquette and Escanaba in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan will take part in a big barber shop song parade at the W. W. Oliver memorial auditorium in Escanaba Saturday night at 8:15. In addition to male quartets, a nationally-known women's quartet, the Chordettes of Sheboygan, will be featured.

The program, which will have Larry Tucker of Iron Mountain as master of ceremonies, will be opened by the Escanaba barber shop chorus of 36 voices under the direction of Sam Ham. George King will act as accompanist. The two opening numbers of the Escanaba group will be "A Little Close Harmony" and "You Had A Dream Dear."

The remainder of the two-hour program will be as follows: "The Mariners", Marinette, Wis.—Ralph Bouschor, tenor; Frank Wedge, lead; Oscar Sallesky, baritone; Harold Hoare, bass.

"The Pitch Pipe Peers", Marquette, Mich.—Lloyd LaVasseur, tenor; Wallace Pellissier, lead; Donald Mellin, baritone; Leon Austin, bass.

"Four Pipes", Escanaba, Mich.—Lowell Sundstrom, tenor; Fritz Provencher, lead; Rupert Piniiski, baritone; Ernest Petersen, bass.

"Four Bubbles", Escanaba, Mich.—Comedy: Dick Schmeltzer, Harold Valentine, L. A. Danielson, Jack Morin.

"The Packer City Four", Green Bay, Wis.—Paul Selissen, tenor; Paul Ziemer, lead; Howard Quell baritone; Larry Selissen, bass.

"Harry Lauder Act"—Sam Ham, Escanaba, Mich.

Rock Drama Club Plans Active Winter Season

Rock, Mich., (Special)—The Rock Drama club will soon begin rehearsal on "The Woman Who Understood Men," a one-act play, and will tour throughout the Northland Co-Operative federation with the show. The first showing of the play is scheduled for Oct. 30.

The Rock Drama club has existed since 1916 and since that time has produced an average of four to five plays yearly. Most of them are written in the Finnish language and represent both classical and modern approaches to drama. New plays are secured from Finland through offices in Duluth and Fort Arthur, Canada. In 1947 three Finnish plays were produced in Rock.

Have Instructor

Despite the long history of theatre activity of both young and old in Rock, the group this year felt that if a show was to be put on tour, some extra training and knowledge would be in order.

They contracted with James Norris of New York city, a professional theatre man who reaches out into the country to teach when not producing or acting on Broadway. Tuesday of this week he completed a five-day instruction course which gave to Rock citizens basic patterns of acting, make-up, costuming and staging, and also an insight into current theatre activity. He cost them $100 plus expenses.

"The course was quite complete and helpful," said Mrs. Leo Amberg, a veteran of the Finnish drama group and favored comedienne in Rock. She added that the various methods of direction were also presented to them.

Three Counties Ask Open Bear Season

Lansing, (P)—Gogebic, Chippewa and Houghton counties applied to the conservation commission for a special open season on bears by the deadline Tuesday, commission secretary Wayland Osgood reported.

The commission at its Friday meeting will act on opening those counties to bear hunting with dogs or otherwise between Oct. 15 and Nov. 5.

Reaching to complaints the bears were becoming a nuisance in some parts of the state, the commission decided to permit the special season where county boards of supervisors requested it.

Bear may also be taken in the regular big game season Nov. 15 to 30.

Raring To Go

Since this period of instruction, most Rock players feel that it is already time to go into rehearsal for this one-act play which will hit the road starting Oct. 30. Their enthusiasm runs high, and the amount of energy they put into their production is prodigious. Any veteran of stage work knows that four or five plays a year, in addition to the regular business of making a living for the 30 odd people in the group, is quite an undertaking.

English plays are beginning to be more popular in the community. From time to time several modern dramas have been produced, but never as successfully as Finnish classics and the new Finnish dramas.

Many members expressed the hope that with the establishment of the new motion picture theatre in Rock interest in English-language plays will be stimulated.

No Audience Problem

In addition to the one-act play which will tour during the fall and early winter, the Finnish drama group plans to produce at least three Finnish plays.

In the past directors have been hired from Duluth and sometimes selected from the group itself. Sometimes, because of its size, the group has casting difficulties.

But they always have an audience. Just about everybody in the community turns out to see the show, and Finnish and Swedish people from neighboring communities always take up extra seats.

Funds and property for productions, rarely present any difficulties, for the 'show' is a community project. Even though all may not get on the stage or even attend meetings, not one would refuse a piece of furniture or a couple of dollars to help put a Finnish show on the road.

Since the first Finnish immigrants began pioneering in Rock, educational and cultural enterprises have found strong favor with them. They have sent their children to schools of higher learning, and have learned from their children. Today, many of them return to their home town after study in colleges and universities.

The drama club finds ready help in them. And returning students look with new pride and interest on the ever-growing activities of the group.

Though the theatre activity of these people has a strong flavor of the past, their productions are considered a 'rarebit' of theatre.

The club has no formal organization.

MINISTER GIVES HIM A BONE—Anthony Irion, 4½, of Pennsauken, N. J., rests in St. Luke's Medical Center in Philadelphia after a bone from a minister's hip was grafted into his arm. Anthony faced the loss of his arm because of a tubercular bone. Rev. Edward C. Erie, Pennsauken Baptist minister, volunteered for the bone graft surgery.

Garden

Annual Meeting

Garden, Mich.—Delegates from Rapid River, Cooks, Fayette, and Isabella churches gathered at the local Congregational church Sunday for the annual district meeting of business and worship with the State Superintendent, Dr. Harold N. Skidmore of Lansing, who was accompanied by Mrs. Skidmore and Mrs. Keith Elliott of Battle Creek, Mich., who recently was elected State President of the Women's Fellowship. The junior choir of Rapid River, directed by Mrs. Serge Hummon and accompanied by Mrs. James Jay, sang the responses, the Lord's Prayer, the anthem "The Heavens Resound" during the worship service and Dr. Skidmore delivered the sermon which was followed by Communion. At noon recess the women of the church served a delicious fish dinner and the hospitality department. The council for the whole parish went into session with Dr. Skidmore at 1 p. m.; general church business was resumed at 2 p. m., and men and women held separate meetings at the hall and church respectively at 3 p. m.

Following adjournment at 4 p. m., John Geniesse issued an invitation for the 1949 meeting to be held in the Fayette church.

DRINKING COEDS ARE SURVEYED

More Dates, But Less
Are Engaged

State College, Pa., (SS.)—College girls who drink have more dates but fewer of them become engaged than non-drinkers.

A study made of 336 college girls in a coeducational institution showed this was an important difference between the two groups. The results were presented by Carol A. Hecht, Ruth J. Grine, and Sally E. Rothrock, under the direction of Dr. Jessie Bernard at the State College of Pennsylvania, in a report made to the Quarterly Journal of Studies on Alcohol.

They divided the women into five categories according to the frequency of drinking during the two-week period studied: women who never drank; infrequent drinkers, who had had nothing to drink within the last two weeks of the study; occasional drinkers who had drunk once in this period; near-regular drinkers who had two drinks within this period and regular drinkers.

This revealed that there were twice as many regular drinkers, a total of 90, as there were non-drinkers.

Other facts brought out by the study were:

The infrequent drinkers had begun to drink in their 19th year while the regular drinkers started earlier, the average age being 17.

The girls who did little or no drinking attended church more often but the study was not conclusive on this point, the investigators stated.

Most of the young women who drank did so with the knowledge of their families.

Those who did the most drinking also had the most dates.

Drinking and smoking among women have had similar trends, the investigators pointed out. They suggested that both were strongly supported by extensive advertising campaigns and upheld by motion picture models of behavior.

All these facts show a widespread change in middle-class standards, they said. The traditional tea party has given way to the cocktail party. This study, although limited, "represents a socially important group, namely college women," they said, adding "they come for the most part from middle-class homes and thus reflect middle-class standards."

They women are significant because "their behavior probably indicates a trend of the immediate future."

Dry Ice Puts Out Fire In Farm Silo

Stanley, Kas. (P)—It took a little time, but Robert E. Lester discovered how to put out the fire in his silo.

He used dry ice. Don Shippy, a tenant on Lester's farm, saw smoke coming from a silo holding 60 tons of silage. He telephoned Lester in Kansas City 30 miles away.

Lester in turn sought advice from a county agent, the Kansas City fire department and the Kansas State College on how to snuff out the slow-burning fire without spoiling the silage. All professed inexperience in fighting fires in silos.

Lester finally called a chemical company. The company loaded 40 cakes of dry ice, each weighing 50 pounds, and rushed them to the silo. The ice was dropped in from the top. The fire went out.

The chemical firm said there would be no charge for the ice. Glad to know it would do the job, a company official said.

"Planned-For" Child Is Not Always Happy

Chicago. — A child that is "planned-for" by its parents is not necessarily happy and secure.

Psychologists have realized that an "unwanted" child starts life under a handicap. But planned-for children have their own problems too, Dr. Sophie Schroeder Sloman of the Institute for Juvenile Research here has found.

One out of eight of the problem children sent to that clinic had been definitely planned for, the psychologist discovered, a total of 62 in all. And some were so unhappy that they had actually threatened suicide.

Many of these children had been deliberately brought into the world in the hope of saving the wreck of an unhappy marriage. It didn't work and when the baby could not bring peace to the parents they didn't want him any more. The old-fashioned remedy for marital difficulties, "a little one, to give a sense of responsibility and bring the parents closer together," was unsuccessful in every one of these cases. Five had ended in divorce and all of the others were still "scrapping". Four of the mothers said that the child had only made a bad situation worse.

Some of the mothers expect nothing but perfect behavior from the children for whom they have so carefully planned. This produced another group of problem children.

Children who disappointed their parents by not being of the hoped-for sex made up a third group.

Obituary

CPL. T. E. NELSON

The body of Cpl. Thomas E. Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nelson of Schaffer, arrived in Bark River this morning, accompanied by Staff Sgt. John A. Marlin of the Army Escort Service. Legionnaires who met the body at the train and escorted it to the Boyle funeral home where it is in state were Paul Noblet, A. E. Anderson, William H. Boyle, L. W. Bruce, L. F. Knauf and Fred A. Derocher. The services will be held Friday at 9 a. m. at the funeral home and at 9:30 at Sacred Heart church, Schaffer, with military rites at Schaffer cemetery. The rosary will be recited at the funeral home at 8 o'clock tonight.

MICHAEL ROBERT ROMAN

Funeral services for Michael Robert, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. William Roman, were held at the Alto funeral home Wednesday afternoon with Rev. A. L. Colegrove officiating. The order of the service was: prayer, song, "Gathering Buds" by Mrs. Walter Hanson, the sermon, "This Is Not the Land of the Living but the Land of the Dying" by the pastor, a song, "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," by Mrs. Hanson, and the closing prayer. Burial was in Gardens of Rest cemetery.

There were three times as many boys as girls among the patients. Girls are more likely to take refuge in submission and neurotic behavior while boys "act out" their troubles, suggested Dr. Sloman in her report to the American Journal of Orthopsychiatry.

COLLEGE HEAD COMING FRIDAY

Dr. Dale Welch Of Alma
To Visit Here

President Dale Welch of Alma College will be in Escanaba Friday for a series of meetings upon behalf of the college.

He will meet with the seniors of the Escanaba high school, at two o'clock and will talk on the subject of college preparation. At six o'clock, President Welch will meet with the young people of the Presbyterian church at the church. He will address a public meeting in the church at 7:30 o'clock and at nine o'clock he will meet with the officers of the Presbyterian church.

Dr. Welch is an ordained minister in the resbyterian church and for 11 years he was president of the University of Dubuque. Currently he is president of the resbyterian College union, the national association of resbyterian colleges.

Alma College was founded by and is under the control of the Presbyterian church of Michigan. It is a fully accredited co-educational college of liberal arts with a limited enrollment of 600.

Sergeant Williams Receives Discharge

M/Sgt. George W. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Williams of Bark River, has received his discharge from Hanscom Airport, Bedford, Massachusetts where he has been non-commissioned officer in charge of motor repair and transportation since January of this year.

Sgt. Williams is a graduate of Harris high school in Harris, finishing with the class of 1942.

Sgt. Williams is a veteran of five and one half years service with the Air Forces which began at Fort Sheridan, Ill., in February 1943. He has seen extensive service in South America since that time and was connected with the American Council in Rio De Janeiro for some time. He has been awarded the EAME Ribbon, the American Theatre Ribbon, Good Conduct Ribbon with clasp and the Victory Medal.

Sgt. Williams is residing with his wife and two children in Bark River.

Americans use about 1,250,000,000 pencils a year.

DR. DALE WELCH, president of Alma College, will confer with high school seniors here tomorrow and will also talk at meetings Friday evening at the Presbyterian church.

Williams Found Not Guilty In Newberry Trial

Newberry, Mich. — Theodore Williams, 27, was found not guilty of negligent homicide late Wednesday after a jury trial in the Luce county circuit court.

The case was the outgrowth of an automobile accident, which occurred on March 30, 1946. Williams was the driver of the car in which Calvin Bruce suffered injuries that resulted in his death the following day. Several other passengers of the two automobiles, involved in the collision were injured.

John P. Shimmens of Newberry was the prosecutor, and Richard W. Nebel of Munising was defense counsel.

The jurors were Otto DeWaard, Newberry, Charles Basler, Newberry, Ferris Musgrove, Columbus township; Paul Carlson, Andrew Anderson, Pentland; Paul A. Weekly, Columbus; Clifford French, Willard Harkness, Elmer Villard, Lakefield; Carl Ferguson, Newberry; and Gilbert Fyvie of Lakefield.

Judge Rannels of Sault Ste. Marie presided.

The Mount Van Hoevenberg bobsled run at Lake Placid, N. Y., is the only one of its kind in the world.

Present estimated endurance of an automobile tire is about three years.

Monument Honors 'Viking Of Arctic'

Brigus, Newfoundland (P) — Americans and Canadians joined in a ceremony at the unveiling of a memorial to Capt. Robert Abram (Bob) Bartlett, the arctic explorer and seafarer.

Bartlett, "the Viking of the Arctic," was a native of Brigus and ended scores of arctic voyages in his famous schooner Morrissey in this port. He died in New York in 1946.

Consular officials and members of the U. S. armed forces in Newfoundland attended the unveiling. The monument consists of a rough-hewn granite plinth with an inset bronze plate bearing Bartlett's profile. It faces north.

Television Grows Up

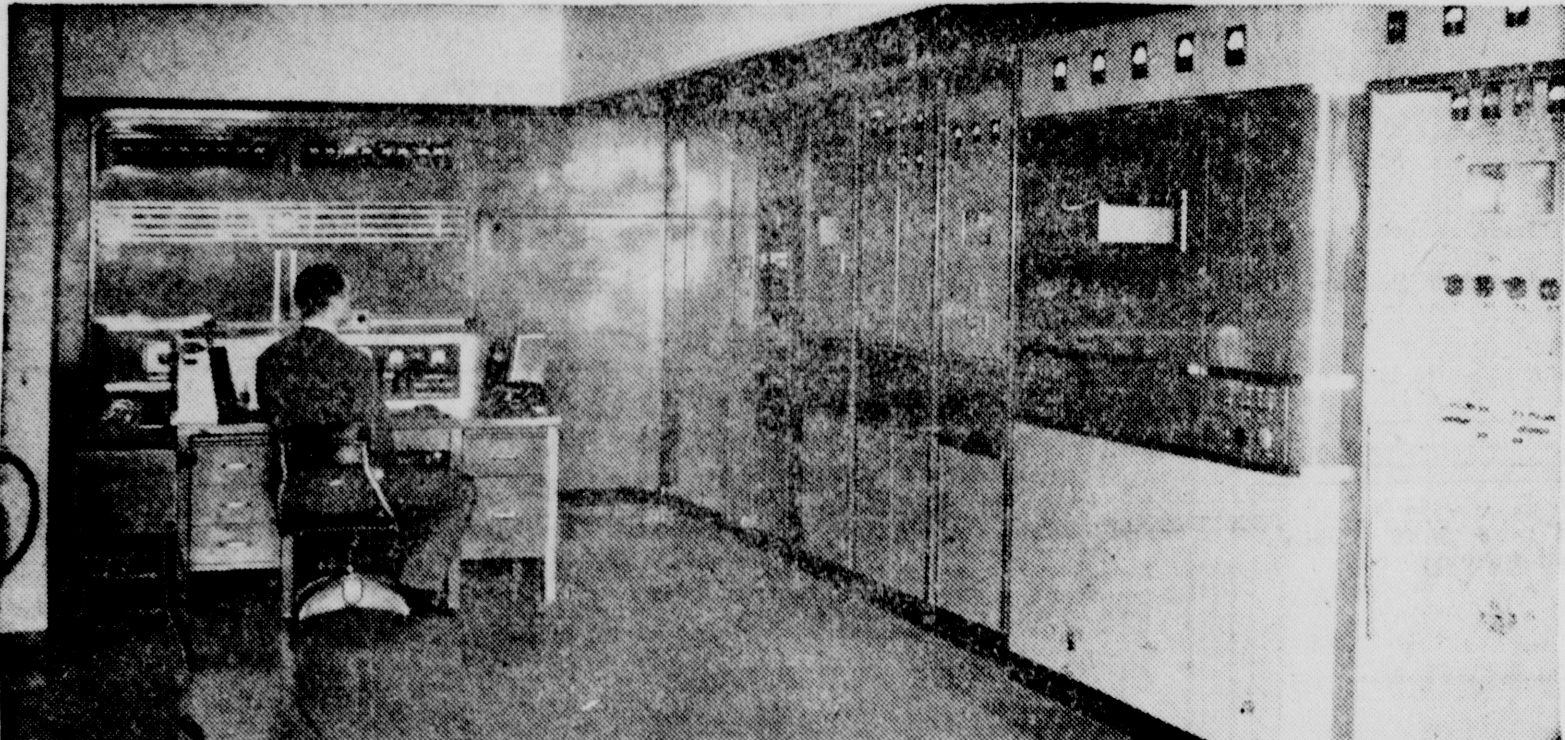

THE infant television industry is shooting up in a sensational burst of growth. Since the first of the year the number of stations and the number of sets have more than doubled. There are now 32 stations compared with 17 when the year began, with 13 more either on the air with preliminary test patterns or almost ready. There are now more than 500,000 television sets in use, and production and distribution is running slightly better than 15,000 sets a week. Set manufacturers expect to count next year's output in the millions. This compares with less than 7,000 sets in 1946. Television's activities are pictured here.

"SHOOTING" A PLAY. A battery of lights, cameras and sound equipment flank the performers in NBC's television studio in New York. Approximately 15 men, including photographers, electricians, stage hands, engineers, producers and directors handle a broadcast.

CONTROL CREW responsible for putting a program on the air. In foreground is engineer; behind him are assistant director, director and technical director.

ENGINEER has busy time controlling picture, sound and frequency modulation transmitter panels at right.

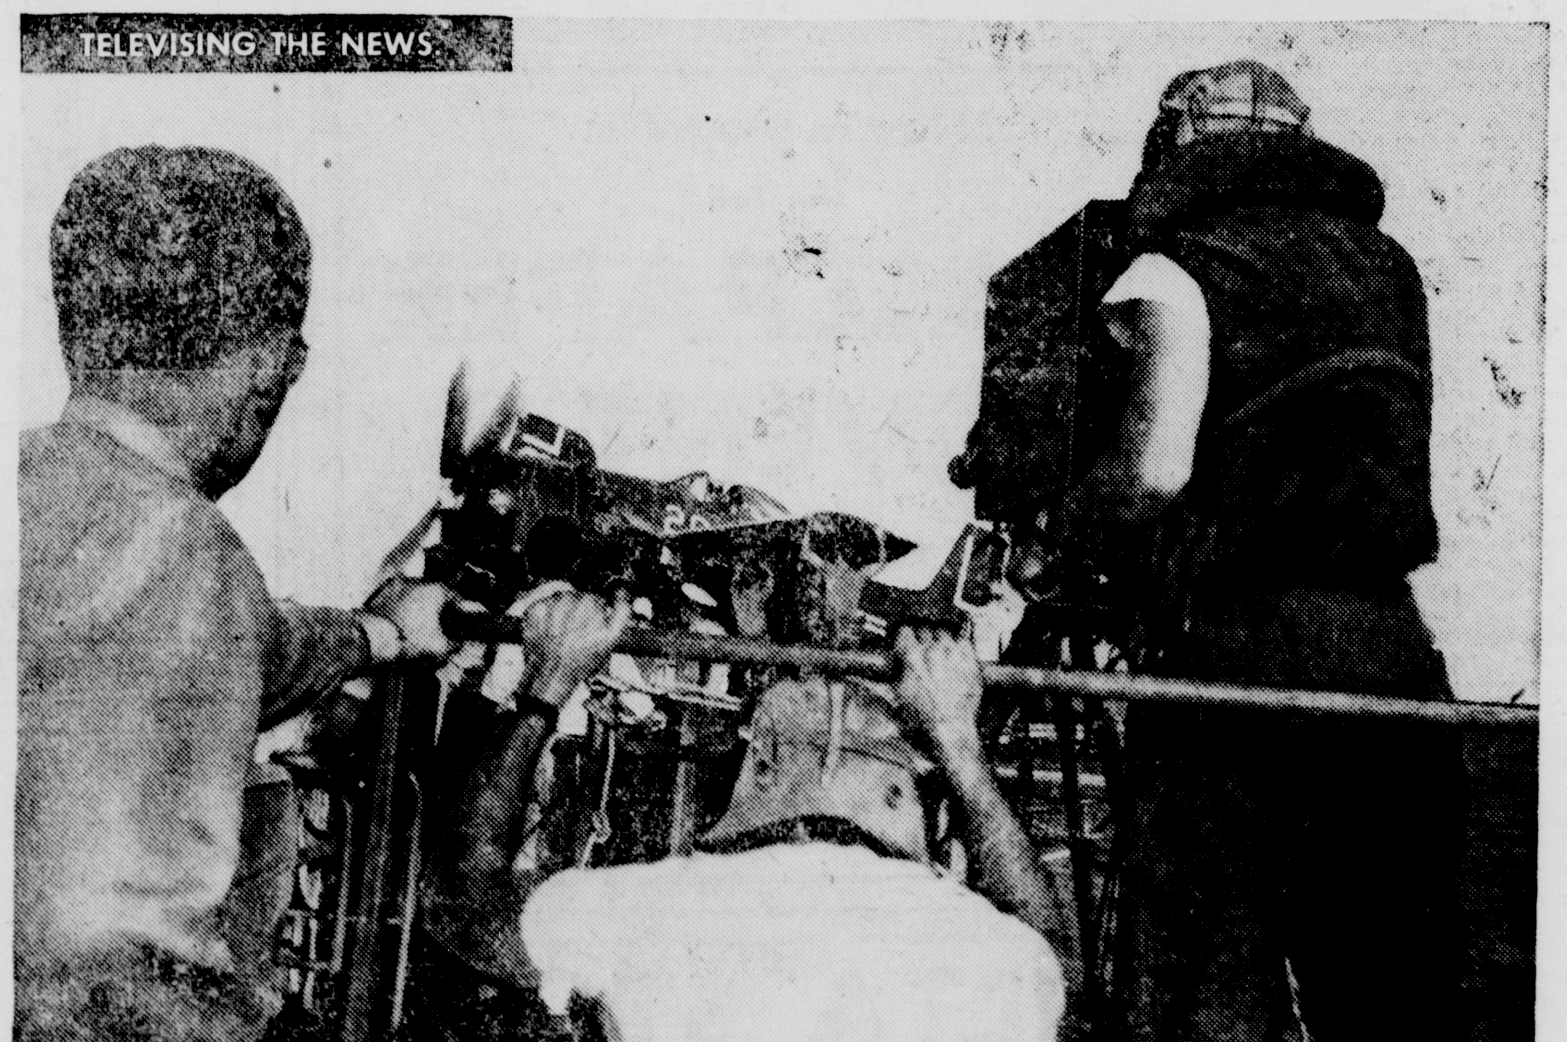

EYEFUL. Showgirls do their stuff before the television camera. There are several days of rehearsals for most shows.

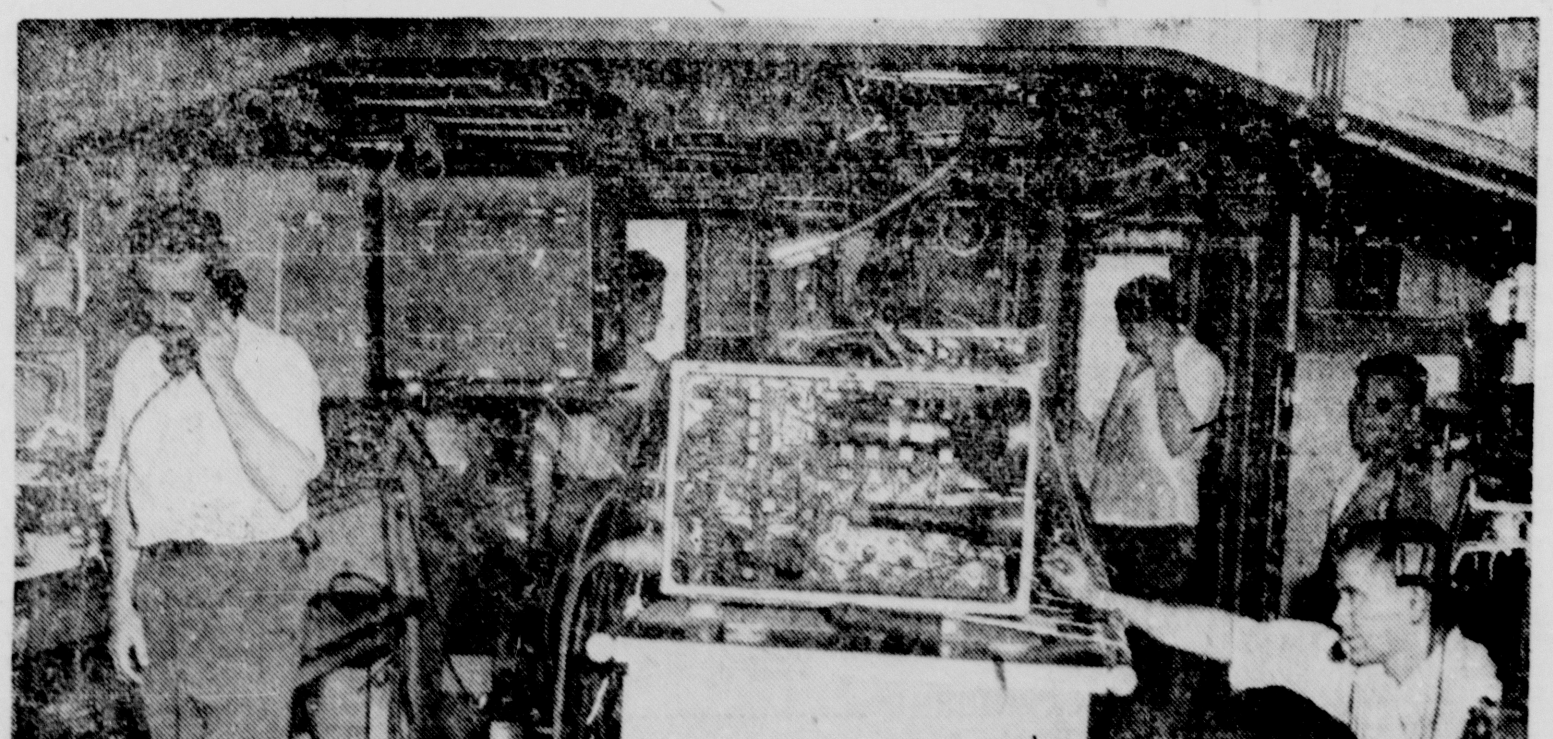

RECORDS PROGRAMS. Robert M. Fraser, NBC development engineer, with specially built motion picture camera to "can" television programs so they can be televised at later date. Camera records the sound on film as well as the picture.

IN THE MAKING. A conductive coating, a mixture of graphite particles and water, is applied to television tube in GE's Buffalo, N. Y., plant. The tube is the device that electronically reproduces the picture on the home receiver.

ABOARD U.S. carrier Leyte, television camera catches action as a Navy fighter plane prepares to take off.

ON THE AIR. In the Leyte's flag plot room, four monitors were set up for transmission of takeoff to network.

Blame For Illness
Put On 'In-laws'

London, Eng., (AP)—Kings College hospital's annual report said one in every 100 of its outpatients is suffering from "in-law-itis."

The victims live with their in-laws and quarrel with them so much that they make themselves sick.

"Doctors send them to the hospital for treatment although organically there is nothing wrong with them," the report said, commenting that there'll be no real remedy until the housing shortage is eased.

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Proof that the small fry are as shirtwaist-conscious as big Gibson Girls is the growing popularity of fancy blouses with the pig-tailed crowd.

Many of the beruffled and importantly-collared shirtwaist styles made for little Gibson Girls are duplicates of blouses which their moms and big sisters shove into their skirts.

For back-to-school wardrobes, the cotton shirtwaist wins the No. 1 popularity vote hands down. Although crisp cottons in ice cream parlor pastels are liked for their feminine, lace-pretty look, the favorites are apt to be high-voltage plaids and stripes.

Starred in stripes by Judy Kent, designer who caters to small fry, is a blouse reminiscent of the shirtwaist style which dotted the campuses of ladies' finishing schools at the turn of the century. The appeal of this shirtwaist (right) of multiple-striped chambray is sharpened by important collars and cuffs of white pique.

Plaids cottons take strict tailoring or beruffled frout with equal grace. The blouse (left) of pink and black gingham goes all out for frout frout with a yoke of white pique doubled-ruffled with alternating rows of plaid gingham and white pique.

Fine Program

An entertaining and instructive program marked the October meeting of the Jefferson Parent-Teacher unit held last evening with an attendance which filled the school auditorium. Mrs. Roy Swanson presided.

The senior high school string ensemble under the direction of Albert Shomento played three selections, an old French dance tune from the 17th century, "Anversary Song" and "Minuet."

Following the musical numbers, the assembly went from the auditorium to the Junior high school to hear Mrs. Belle's Murray's talk on sex education, and then returned to the Jefferson building for the remainder of the meeting.

At the business session plans for the Halloween carnival were outlined.

During the social hour lunch, donated by the sixth grade fathers and mothers, was served by a committee composed of Mrs. Ray Olson, chairman, Mrs. Howard Elmer, Mrs. Tel Nelson, Mrs. Chris Nelson and Mrs. Eugene Hansen. The auditorium was attractively decorated in Halloween motifs made by Mrs. M. B. Jensen's sixth graders.

The attendance award was won by Miss Margaret Fitzsimmons' first grade.

Party For Twins
Puzzles Oldsters

Those who shook their heads and wondered what the younger generation was coming to, and those who locked their car doors when they saw twenty young folks racing up and down Ludington street, Tuesday might well be glad to know that it was nothing more than just a group of young folks having fun.

The occasion was Mary and Nancy Witham's 17th birthday party. The twins are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Nyal Witham, 1205 First avenue south.

The game they were playing when a troubled passer-by called to inquire at the police station as to what was going on, is known as the game of wits. Clues were placed under bricks near several of the downtown business places. Each clue formed a rhyme or a number which sent the team on to the next clue. Winners who managed to discover all the clues, were awarded boxes of chocolate bars and gum.

It was a close race, but all five teams were back by 9:30 to enjoy a supper of chicken with all the trimmings and a birthday cake. A Halloween motif was used throughout in the decorations and the meal was served picnic style by Mrs. Witham, assisted by Mrs. Robert Vorhees and Mrs. Richard Vorhees.

The twins received many lovely gifts from their guests who were Mary Groos, Chuck Benzinger, Lorrie Groos, Jack Slapp, Ann Shepek, Howie Perron, Glenna Fallmer, Dick Pryal, Janet Oberg, Dick Johnson, Mary Cleerman, John Degnan, Barbara Walch, Steve Beggs, Jean Wylie, Herb Nicholson, Dick Barron and Franny Papineau.

DUCK SEASON OPENS FRIDAY

Shooting Will Start At 12 Noon Tomorrow

The 1948 duck hunting season will open at 12 o'clock noon (EST) tomorrow in Michigan, with prospects for hunting in this area considered fair.

The season for taking ducks, geese and brant, and coot will open on Oct. 15 and continue to Nov. 13, inclusive. After the opening day shooting may start one-half hour before sunrise and continue to one hour before sunset.

Favored duck hunting areas in this vicinity will be along the bay shores, and in some inland lakes and marshes.

The bag limits this season are as follows: Ducks, four in one day, eight in possession at one time; geese and brant, four in a day and four in possession; coot, 15 in one day and 15 in possession, including coots, gallinules and rails in the aggregate of all kinds.

There is no open season on elder duck, Ross' geese, swans, jack-snipe, blackbellied and golden plover, yellow legs, sandpiper, killdeer.

The season on rail and gallinules opens tomorrow but will close Oct. 30, earlier than the season on ducks, geese and coots. A federal duck stamp is required, in addition to the state small game license, to legally hunt ducks.

In Delta county Little Bay de Noie from Sand Point to Brewery Point is closed to waterfowl hunting.

Tucker Corporation Fraud Charged In Chicago Complaint

Chicago, Oct. 14 (AP)—Four plaintiffs obtained federal court permission today to file a second amended complaint charging Preston T. Tucker, automobile builder, and 17 other defendants with conspiring to defraud stockholders.

Among charges in the amended complaint are:

That the first "Tucker Torpedo" which was advertised as having just come off the assembly lines was in reality a hand-built, redesigned 1942 Oldsmobile.

That Tucker, president of Tucker Corporation, bought an airplane for $40,000 of the corporation's money and leased it to the company for $6,000 a month.

That Tucker used corporation money to buy a home near Bogota, Colombia, South America.

Wallace Out-Talks Truman Tonight In Milwaukee Speeches

Milwaukee, Oct. 14 (AP)—Henry Wallace will out-talk President Truman tonight.

Mr. Truman is scheduled for a single speech at Borchert Field, where the Milwaukee Brewers play baseball. The field seats seats 10,000.

Wallace, Progressive party candidate for Mr. Truman's job, will speak three times. Two talks are scheduled for rooms in the municipal auditorium — each seating about 300 — while the third is to be broadcast.

A roller skating revue has leased the main auditorium.

Supt. Gucky Goes To Traverse City

Stephenson, Mich. — Joseph B. Gucky, superintendent of the Stephenson public schools motored to Traverse City Thursday morning to attend a meeting of the schools participating in the Community School Service Program.

Each of the five communities will submit written reports of the progress of the Community School Service Program to date. The reports will be critically evaluated by the Department of Public Instruction to find evidences of accomplishments which define basic principles of democratic community action.

Lighted Towers Fatal To Birds

Washington, Mich. — Birds falling dead at the foot of towers and tall buildings at night are an old tragedy, Frederick C. Lincoln of the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service stated here. It is a tragedy that occurs frequently, in spite of efforts to prevent it; some things, however, have helped to reduce the number of victims.

Floodlighting towers is one great cause of bird deaths, Mr. Lincoln explained. Birds fly towards the light like moths towards a candle. They may pull up short when they see the obstacle at close range, but if it is a stormy night, with low ceiling and a gusty wind blowing, the buffeting wind is apt to hurl the birds against the tower, with fatal results.

Here in Washington, the 555-foot shaft of the Washington Monument claims most bird victims. Floodlighting the monument is imperative, lest it create too great a hazard to incoming planes. Fortunately, weather conditions here have been such that relatively few birds have been killed in this way during the past couple of years. When the guards at the monument see dead birds at its base, they call up the Fish and Wildlife Service, which salvages the bodies for preservation as scientific specimens.

Bikini Seedcorn Has Abnormal Offspring

Pasadena, Calif., (SS.)—Atom bomb rays at Bikini had profound effects on the offspring descended from grains of seedcorn exposed at the time of the air burst at Bikini in the summer of 1946. Dr. E. G. Anderson of the California Institute of Technology states in a report to the National Academy of Sciences that more than half of the functioning germ cells of plants from seeds thus exposed carry one or more gene mutations, or sudden evolutionary shifts, caused by the radiations.

Among the seedling plants were such departures from normal as albinos; striped, pale green, pale yellow and mottled leaves; dwarf, glossy and other aberrant shapes and coats. Plants that matured had such grain abnormalities as white, sugary, brittle, opaque and shrunken. All changes described are abnormalities, including lethals, or changes that prevent the seed from germinating at all, or perhaps even from getting formed in the first place.

Control lots of seedcorn were subjected to graded doses of x-rays to find what intensity was needed to produce similar changes. This proved to be 15,000 roentgens—rated as an exceedingly heavy x-ray irradiation.

'Slight' Noise Wrecks Farm

During the night, Maurice Regole heard a "slight" noise on his farm near Chicago, but he didn't bother to see what it was. Came the dawn, and this is what it was—an explosion had wrecked his barn, silo and windmill. Gas, formed from fresh corn silage, was blamed for the blast.

Death Takes Noted Inventor In Lansing

Dr. Chamberlain Pioneer In Field Of Physics

Lansing, Oct. 14 (AP)—Dr. Clark W. Chamberlain, 78, a pioneer in the field of physics and a noted inventor died here Wednesday.

Dr. Chamberlain developed hundreds of inventions, useful both in war and peace. He also had a long teaching career that included the presidency of Denison University, Granville, Ohio, and 16 years of teaching at Michigan State College.

Dr. Chamberlain was best known for his development of a "vibration absorber". The device was utilized by the Packard Motor Car Company in the manufacture of Rolls-Royce engines, used to power fighter planes during World War II. The invention had many other uses, including the elimination of vibrations from heavy factory machinery and from ship motors.

Among his other inventions were an "optical interferometer", an instrument capable of measuring to the millionth of an inch, a vibrationless forging hammer and numerous improvements for highway reflector signs.

Dr. Chamberlain maintained a large laboratory at his East Lansing home. At the time of his death he was working on a "heat machine", a device to draw heat from the air by compression. With its perfection he hoped to revolutionize the entire concept of home heating.

Green Metal Rich In Uranium Found For Atomic Stuff

Associated Press Science Editor

New York (AP)—Discovery of a new green mineral rich in uranium, the same kind that makes power and bombs, was announced today at Columbia University.

This green mineral is a relative of the yellow carnotite, from which the United States gets its domestic uranium in the Rockies. Carnotite is one of the two best sources of the atomic stuff.

Whether the green mineral is plentiful is not yet known. The green crystals, small things clinging to mine walls, were found in the Belgian Congo and sent to Columbia for analysis. Like the yellow carnotite, the green stuff is about 60 per cent uranium.

If the new mineral proves a good uranium source, the discovery is the most important of its kind since the atomic bomb. More than 100 minerals containing uranium are known, but the stuff has been too difficult to extract.

Consequently some geologists have published doubts whether the world can have an atomic age very long if it has to rely on the two good sources of uranium known up to World War II. These are pitchblende and carnotite. The amount of uranium available from them has been variously estimated, with the low being only enough to supply the entire power of the United States for two or three years, if Uncle Sam cornered the entire world's supply of the pair.

Discovery of the green mineral seems to let Russia into the picture, since it is also closely related to a mineral named tyuyamunite, that was first found in Russian Turkestan. Beyond announcing that they were searching for new sources of uranium, the Russians have said nothing.

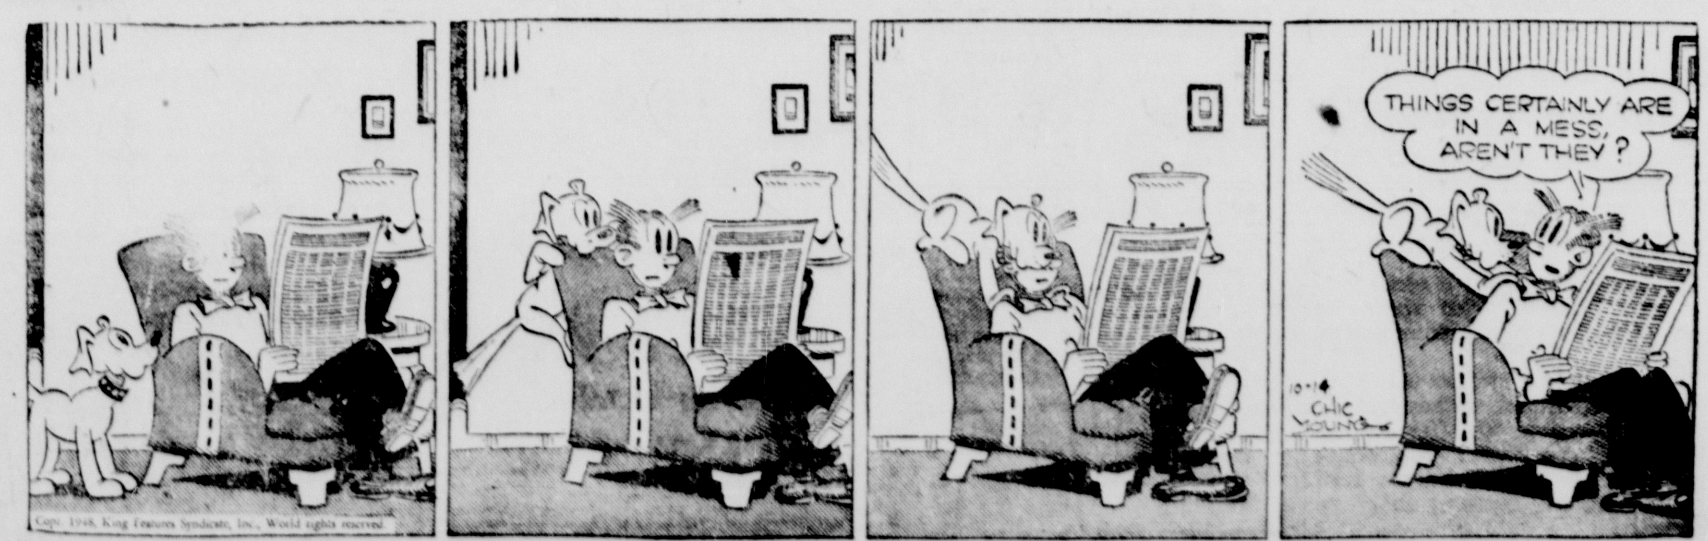

The new mineral was named sengerite, for Edward Senger, managing director of the union mine at Haut Katanga, where the green stuff was discovered. J. F. Vaea, mineralogist of this company, lacking apparatus to study the discovery, sent small samples to Dr. Paul F. Kerr head of Columbia's department of geology. Kerr, with the aid of H. D. Holland and Professor T. I. Taylor, used x-rays to find the uranium and its percentage.

"One never knows," Prof. Kerr said, "whether a newly discovered mineral will be an important source, or just go on being a rare mineral. We don't know the distribution of Sengerite in the earth's crust."

The Columbia scientists compared the new material with 53 others which also contain uranium, before deciding that this is an entirely new one.

go county, Texas, was the scene of their activities. It was selected because it has always had a large amount of infectious diarrheal diseases as well as a major fly problem.

Fitzsimmons Seeks To Avoid Prison In Hearing At Lansing

Lansing, Oct. 14 (AP)—Floyd Fitzsimmons, Benton Harbor lobbyist and sports promoter, will be brought here Friday for physical examination preliminary to his attempt to avoid a prison sentence for graft conspiracy.

Richard B. Foster, special prosecutor of the Ingham county grand jury, said he had notified Eugene L. Garey, of New York, Fitzsimmons' attorney, to present his client here for an examination by two physicians selected by Foster. The special prosecutor declined to name them now.

Foster said Fitzsimmons has petitioned circuit Judge John Simpson of Jackson, who sentenced the defendant for a modification of sentence, contending his health would be seriously impaired by a prison sentence. Judge Simpson instructed Foster to have the examinations made.

Fitzsimmons was sentenced to serve three to four years in prison on a charge of attempting to bribe former Rep. Gail Handy of Eau Claire in connection with horse race legislation.

Lakes Opened Up To Night Spearing

Lansing, Oct. 14 (AP)—A special season for spearing ciscoes, whitefish and carp with artificial light on specially designated lakes opens tomorrow in the northern peninsula and the upper peninsula and Nov. 1 in southern Michigan.

One new lake, Cisco Lake in Gogebic county, has been added to the lakes open for spearing in previous years. Now 18 lakes in 11 counties of northern Michigan and more than 80 lakes in 16 counties in southern Michigan are open to the sport.

The special season is designed to permit harvesting of a fish crop which can not be taken any other way.

Kiki Cuyler Named Red Sox Coach In Place of Del Baker

Boston, Oct. 14 (AP)—Red Sox Manager Joe McCarthy today announced the resignation of Coach Del Baker.

He has been replaced by Hazen (Kiki) Cuyler, former outfielder (Kiki) Cuyler, former outfielder of the Pittsburgh Pirates and Chicago Cubs, McCarthy said.

Since his active playing days, Cuyler has managed Chattanooga of the Southern Association in 1939, 1940 and 1941, winning the pennant the first year. He returned to the Chicago Cubs as coach in 1941-43. He went to Atlanta of the Southern Association as manager in 1944 and remained until the end of the current season. He won the pennant in 1945-46.

Cuyler, who played under McCarthy when he managed the Cubs, makes his home in Harrisville, Mich.

Gen. Ike's Painting Sells For $2,600

New York, Oct. 14 (AP)—A painting by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower was sold for $2,600 at a benefit auction last night.

The picture of an Indian, which Eisenhower did for the Urban League, a group to aid Negroes, brought the highest price in the sale of paintings by 100 celebrities.

Bob Voights Uses Crisler's 2-Unit Football System

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 13 (AP)—If Northwestern's Wildcats find the power to crack Michigan's 17-game winning streak here Saturday, they can give some of the credit to Fritz Crisler, Wolverine athletic director and former coach.

For, like many another club this fall, the Wildcats are using the two-unit system which Crisler inaugurated last year to stun ten consecutive foes.

The idea of stealing Michigan's thunder was born as the Wolverines' offensive unit rolled up 49 points last year while the defensive combine held the Cats to 21 points.

Coach Bob Voights adopted the idea in part this season. With the exception of such all-around stalwarts as Center Alex Sarkisian, Halfback Frank Aschenbrenner and a few others, the lineup depends on possession of the ball.

The results speak for themselves. Northwestern ripped UCLA 19-0, then pounded a highly-regarded Purdue Club 21-0, and last week came from behind to edge powerful Minnesota, 19-16.

Irish-Trojan Game Already a Sellout

Los Angeles, Oct. 14 (AP)—The Notre Dame-Southern California football game Dec. 4 has already been pronounced a sell-out.

USC ticket manager John Morley said applications received assure a packed crowd and he added that further applications will be turned down.

The same situation, weeks before the game, prevailed last year, and more than 104,000 squeezed into Memorial Coliseum to see the Irish annihilate the Trojans.

$15,000 Glendale Open Is Underway

Glendale, Calif., Oct. 14 (AP)—Ben Hogan, who hasn't been beaten in tournament play in Southern California since January of 1946, heads the parade today as play begins in the $15,000 Glendale Open.

Hogan finished second that year in the Los Angeles Open at nearby Riviera Country Club—and proceeded to win the 1947 and 1948 Los Angeles events and then the U. S. National Open at the same course last June.

Girl Scouts Here
Reorganize And
Plan Activities

Girl Scout activities in Manistique are again being resumed, some troops having already started their new year, the Junior high troop with a hike in the rain last Saturday.

The Leaders Association met at the home of Mrs. A. F. Hall Monday evening and organized for the year. Officers chosen were: President, Mrs. Howard Graff; Vice President, Sidney Bouwer; Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. Leonard Puranen; Council representatives, Miss Annette Anderson and Mrs. A. Malamud.

Mrs. Lottie Woodford, Juliette Low chairman, presented the Girl Scout world friendship project for the year, which is to send 100,000 kits to Europe and Asia through the American Friends Service Committee. Each troop will pack a box, according to specifications, out-fitting one child completely.

At a meeting held Tuesday p. m. the Manistique High School council voted to send a box in addition to those sent by the troops, which means that ten little children on the other side of the world will be comfortably clothed by Manistique Girl Scouts. With the Scouts throughout the country co-operating in like manner the goal of 100,000 kits will be reached and the largest project of its kind ever undertaken by the organization will be successfully completed.

A Leaders' Conference will be held in Marquette next Tuesday which a number of the Manistique leaders plan to attend. It will consist of group discussions and will feature a "work shop" presenting instructions in chip carving, textile painting, square and folk dancing and music to be used in troop meetings.

There is need of more leaders, one troop being without any leadership and others without an assistant.

Volunteering their services as leaders are: Mrs. C. F. Anderson, Mrs. T. H. Reque, Mrs. Robert Orr, Mrs. Howard Graff, Mrs. Raymond Moles, Mrs. James Fyvie, Miss Elizabeth Mikulich, Mrs. Ormer Dybevik, Mrs. T. E. GOLD STAR
MOTHER DIES

Mrs. E. C. Bebeau To Be Buried Saturday A. M.

Mrs. Ellen C. Bebeau, a Gold Star Mother and resident of Manistique for the past forty-two years, died late Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Joseph Benschtel following a long period of illness.

Mrs. Bebeau was born in Marquette on January 28, 1872, and when a child, moved with her family to Escanaba, where she resided until her marriage, in Escanaba on Nov. 28, 1890, to Joseph Bebeau. For a number of years they resided in Greenland, Mich., moving to Manistique in 1907. She was a member of St. Francis de Sales Catholic church and of the League of Sacred Heart; and was also for years, active in the local Legion Auxiliary.

Her son Gordon was killed in action in France in World War I. Surviving her are three daughters, Mrs. E. L. Carrington, Rhinelander, Wis., Mrs. H. T. Anderson, Manistique and Mrs. H. S. Settergren, Sault Ste. Marie; a brother, D. H. Whalen, Alturus, California; eight grandchildren and nine great grandchildren.

Funeral services have been tentatively set for Saturday morning at eight o'clock at St. Francis de Sales Catholic church. The Rev. Fr. B. J. P. Scheyers will conduct the funeral mass and burial will be in Fairview cemetery. Friends may call at the Morton Funeral Home.

111 Cedar StreetCOUNTY BOARD
ADOPTS BUDGETCounty Officers And Clerks Get Raise

Fixing of the budget for the coming fiscal year was the chief item of business transacted at the two days session of the Schoolcraft county board of supervisors held Monday and Tuesday. Included among the various department items are increases in salaries averaging about 20 per cent for county officers and employees.

Among other matters of business was the recommendation by the board that the county road commission hire an engineer if compensation is paid by the state. The supervisors recommended that employees on the highway commission be paid an hourly wage increase of 5 cents per hour. A motion passed by the board raising the salaries of members of the road commission $150 per year, was rescinded.

Albert Sapp was appointed manager of the Schoolcraft county airport, his tenure of that position being set until the time of the expiration of the airport license.

The state conservation department was petitioned, at the request of the Schoolcraft Sportsman's Club, to permit the opening of Indian Lake to the shearing of northern pike during the winter months.

Following is the budget adopted for the coming year:

County Board of Social Welfare	$18,000.00
Soldiers and Sailors Relief	700.00
Alger-Schoolcraft Health Unit	1,300.00
Dental Clinic Assistant	450.00
Health Unit Insurance	60.00
Schoolcraft County Potato Show	100.00
Michigan Children Aid Society	100.00
Upper Peninsula Development Bureau	100.00
Upper Peninsula Children Center	100.00
Board of Supervisors	3,300.00
Circuit Court	2,500.00
Circuit Court Commissioner	60.00
Court House, grounds	3,200.00
County Clerk	6,500.00
Register of Deeds	6,400.00
County Treasurer	6,400.00
Coroner	100.00
Elections	500.00
Fire Truck	100.00
Justice Court	500.00
Prosecuting Attorney	4,500.00
School Commissioner	2,500.00
Sheriff's Office	7,500.00
Judge of Probate	5,300.00
Agricultural Agent	1,600.00
Miscellaneous	659.55
Total	$65,829.55

Schoolcraft MEA
Will Hold First
Meeting Tonight

J. Earl Cousineau, president of the Schoolcraft-Mackinac MEA district, announces that the organization will hold its first Schoolcraft county MEA meeting on Thursday evening, Oct. 14 at 6:30 o'clock.

A buffet supper will be served at that hour in the home economics department. This will be followed by entertainment, a get-acquainted session and a business meeting.

Mr. Cousineau urges all members of the local MEA to attend this session because many important matters will be discussed at the business meeting, chief of which will be a discussion of proposals One and Five to be voted on in the coming election. Stanley Carlyon will lead in this discussion.

Timber Trail
Girl Scout Camp
Receives Praise

Members of the Timber Trail Association met in Manistique last Friday at the home of Mrs. G. Hughes.

Representatives from Munising, Marquette, Ishpeming, Negaunee and Manistique attended the meeting, which consisted of a morning and an afternoon session with luncheon served at noon by the hostess.

It was reported at the meeting that Julian Salomen, National Camping Consultant for Girl Scouts, who inspected Camp Timber Trail recently, had rated it as one of the finest pioneer camp sites in the country. Suggestions made by Mr. Salomen for the improvement and up-keep of the camp were given careful consideration, and it was decided to start work immediately on some of the projects, namely the dock and the wells, and that other suggestions would be carried out as the board found it possible to do so.

New officers who were elected by the Association at this meeting were: President—Mrs. Harry Funk, Marquette; Vice President—Mrs. L. B. Priggles, Munising; Treasurer—Mrs. C. W. Curtis, Munising.

ROBERT ORR IS
RED CROSS HEADNew Local Projects
Planned For 1949

Initial plans for activities of the Schoolcraft County Chapter of the American Red Cross were discussed at a meeting of directors of that organization at the First National Bank Tuesday afternoon.

Assisting with these discussions was Mrs. Irene Pohlman, representative in this area of the St. Louis division of the American Red Cross, who spoke concerning the national and world program and what will be expected from each individual chapter to help back that program.

The local program was particularly stressed, however, and the promotion of three new programs here was generally favored. These were:

Courses in home nursing, first aid and water safety.

Robert Orr was elected chairman. J. Mauritz Carlson will continue as treasurer and Mrs. Lottie Weber, will continue in her supervision of relief channeled through the organization. A secretary and a new board of directors is yet to be chosen.

Mr. Orr succeeds John I. Belaire, who has been head of the local chapter for the past two years.

The drive for funds will be made next spring. According to present indications, the quota will be slightly less than last year.

Traunik

Mrs. Antoinette Garafol of Waukegan has returned to her home after visiting with Mr. and Mrs. John Grom of Traunik.

Parachutes which have been used must be repacked by government-licensed packers known as "riggers."

Fayette

Nuptial Shower

Fayette, Mich.—Mrs. Roland Gauthier and Mrs. Lawrence St. Ours arranged a pre-nuptial shower at the town hall Tuesday night honoring Miss Marcella St. Ours, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John St. Ours. A large group of local ladies as well as Mrs. Harvey Humbert and Mrs. Fred Rochefort of Garden and Mrs. Donald Greene of Detroit attended and showered the bride-to-be with many homemaking gifts. Cards were played, prizes going to Mrs. Leslie Devet for first place, Mrs. Lloyd St. Ours for second and Mrs. Harold Rochefort, low score. Mrs. Alfred Swanson jr. received the guest award. Delicious lunch was enjoyed after play and Miss St. Ours opened and acknowledged the gifts presented.

Church Meeting

Among those who attended the annual gathering of Congregationalists, which this year was the sixtieth anniversary of the district association, at present including the churches of Garden, Isabella, Rapid River, Cooks and Fayette were Orville Farley, who has served as moderator for the past three years, Howard Gierke, who has served one of a three-year term as registrar, Mrs. Orville Farley, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Peterson and two children, Peter Jacobson, Mrs. Catherine Hughes and Mr. and Mrs. John Geniese, Mrs. Margaret Folio, Mrs. John Lang, Mrs. Harold Stern, Miss Leda Gierke, Mrs. Catherine Watchorn, son Robert, and granddaughter, Charles Watchorn the Misses Mattie and Adelle Elliott.

Personals

Mrs. Martha King of Sagataw, Mich., has returned to her home after visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Edwin Wessel of Fayette.

In Memoriam

To the beautiful memory of our little Darling Daughter and sister Maureen Dahn who passed away two years ago today October 14th, 1946.

God called her up to Heaven On a warm October day, Her work on earth completed He took her there to stay. Her loving eyes He closed to sleep He knew she needed rest, He called her to her Heavenly home.

Our Lord knew it was best, He placed a smile upon her lips, Which only angels bear, Her soul is peaceful, happy, free, She knows no sorrow there, We know our little Tina is waiting,

To see us all once more, When God in His Glorious mercy, Calls us all to that Heavenly Shore.

A little girl Who is sadly missed By Mother, Dad, Sisters and Brothers

WORKMEN BUSY
ON NEW BLDG.Recreation Building Now
Nearing Completion

Interior work on the new recreation building at the playground is now being done by municipal workmen.

Ceilings are being placed and the interior partitioned for recreation use.

In the north part of the building will be a general meeting room and coke bar.

A warming room for skaters and an arts and crafts room will occupy the south portion of the building.

In the center will be sanitary facilities, locker room and storage space.

Municipal employees are continuing work on Montana from 16th to 18th. Rough graveling has been done in the first block and the second block should be completed in another week. Opening of this section of the avenue provides another way of reaching the athletic field.

Rapid River

Mrs. Sandy Short
Club President

Rapid River—Mrs. Sandy Short was elected president of the Home Economics Extension club at its opening meeting of the fall held Monday evening at the Short home. Other officers are Mrs. Andrew Wils, vice president; Mrs. Angus Pineau, secretary-treasurer. Letter Writing Week
Will Again Be Held

National Letter Writing Week will be observed this coming week, October 17 to 23, Postmaster B. R. Micks advises.

"Write Today—Make Someone Happy" is the slogan for the week.

"The Soliloquy of the Letter Carrier" is used to publicize the campaign. It follows:

How often do you think about the letters you write—or should write—and what they mean to people?

I've been carrying the mail over this same route since the fall of 1919. That's twenty-nine years, and in that time I've seen a lot of people come and go in this neighborhood—learned a lot about them. I see how pleased they are when they hear from someone they don't see very often and the light in their eyes when their kids write home. Right now, I suppose I've got some letters here written by people who left the town years ago who still keep in touch with their old neighbors, their friends and families.

This job isn't so dull or burdensome that I can't sense how glad people are when they reach for the letters I hand them. You get to thinking a lot about personal letters when you know how much happiness they bring, or how much disappointment can be caused by letters that never got written.

Often, someone along the route says to me, a little guiltily, "I've just got to get a letter off to Sue," or "What in the world will the Jacksons think of us for not writing?" Of course, you should "get off a letter to Sue" and I could make a good guess about what the Jacksons are thinking. There aren't many good excuses for the failure to write letters.

Why, even the busiest people could write a letter in the time they take to explain why they don't. No one gets so busy that he can afford to let friendship fade away, especially when a little thoughtfulness—in the form of a letter now and then—would make everybody a lot happier.

And when you write a letter whether you're expressing sympathy or congratulations, or just sending along a little gossip news, the way I figure it you're involving yourself in a pretty decent kind of fellowship. You're not just a lone soul any more. Maybe I'm stretching this idea a bit too far, but I figure when you write a letter, you're a little bit of the brotherhood of man, maybe; you're thinking of others—and doing something about it. You belong!

Naturally, I never see the contents of any mail. In this coun-

'Open Your Eyes, Stewart!'

BASEBALL BEEFING — Coach Bill McKechie, left, and Lou Boudreau climbed all over Bill Stewart when the umpire called the Indians' shortstopping manager out at third base as he attempted to stretch a double into a triple in the first inning of the fourth World Series game.

Stewart Difficulties Emphasize That Happy Should Handle Umpires

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

Cleveland—Bill Stewart's three rhubarbs in the World Series was something in the way of evidence that major league umpires should be hired, fired, and assigned by all season — by the baseball commissioner.

While they call them as they see them, of course, umpires are now also as partisan as the players.

Each of the 13 or 14 umpires in each big wheel Happy Chandler comes in contact with the athletes of each club in something approaching 40 games a season.

Naturally, the combatants and the arbiters become friendly. The smarter managers and players, especially catchers, go out of their way to be nice. They inquire about the plate ump's family, and whatnot.

After All-Star Games, I have heard umpires of the winning circuit say: "Well, we fixed those League so-and-so's." They get as big a bang out of the victory as the members of the winning side.

During the 1934 Series between the Cardinals and Tigers, I heard a veteran National League umpire upbraid Goose Goslin unmercifully in a packed Detroit hotel elevator simply because the Detroit outfielder spoke to him. Goslin had protested a decision, or decisions, of the umpire the previous afternoon.

Called out on close plays by an umpire of their loop, players down through the years have said: "You're a fine American Leaguer," or vice versa.

To members of the club ruled against, the umpire of one league calling a tough one against the representatives of the other too frequently becomes "an League son of a sea cook," and the bench jockeying begins.

That's what happened at Braves Field when Lou Boudreau of the Indians and a lot of other people believed Bob Feller had picked Phil Masi off second base in the eighth inning of the first game of this fall's World Series, and Stewart, a National League umpire, called the catcher safe.

The Indians and their dugout really climbed aboard Stewart in the first inning of the second game, when the umpire called Alvin Dark safe at first after Joe Gordon bobbled his grounder.

It wasn't so much that they suspected Dark was out. The contention of the players, a good share of the working press and many spectators was that Stewart motioned that the shortstop was safe before his foot hit the bag or the ball was in Eddie Robinson's mitt.

Stewart again bumped into trouble in the first inning of the fourth game in Cleveland, when he called Boudreau out as the shortstopping manager attempted to stretch a double, which scored Dale Mitchell, into a triple. That squeak blew over when Steve Gromek edged Johnny Sain, 2-1. But that didn't keep a sizeable portion of the largest crowd in baseball history from boing when Stewart was announced as the second base umpire in the fifth game. By that time, a vast number of the good citizens of Cleveland and other supporters of the Tribe were convinced that Stewart was a confirmed National League burglar.

It was reminiscent of the 1935 Series between the Tigers and Cubs, when vital decisions against the Chicagoes followed George Moriarty, an American League umpire, around. In the end, Moriarty practically cleaned out the Cubs' dugout.

If umpires were pooled, each one would see each major league club no more than 20 times a year.

None would have any affiliation when he was assigned to the World Series.

Bill Klem is now the National League's umpire-in-chief. Tommy Connolly has for years served in the same capacity in the American.

Either or both would be equally efficient under Happy Chandler.

A tremendous load would be taken off the shoulders of the umpires in World Series, All-Star and inter-league games. Nobody could call an umpire a one-league man.

Eskymo-Mountaineer Gridders Here Saturday

ESCANABA DAILY PRESS SPORTS "It Seems To Me"

BY IIM WARD

"Remember way back when you used to be able to play a full football season between the end of baseball season and opening of the hockey schedule!"

This remark was made yesterday by Hugh Fullerton, AP sports columnist, about the Detroit Red Wing-Chicago Black Hawk hockey opener last night at a time when the World Series is still warm and football is just approaching the halfway mark.

Another example of the crowding sports calendar is the appearance of the Sheboygan Redskins here Thursday night, Oct. 28, when even Upper Peninsula high school football is still in its glory. And high school football winds up early in this north country.

Cliff Frasher and George Grenholm have been buzzing us about this basketball attraction, and it seems only yesterday that all we ever talked about was softball. The football season up here is getting shorter every year.

But for the Sheboygan Redskins, we gladly bow. They are class. The local basketball populace will welcome them even on October 28. That's two days before the Escanaba Eskymos wind up the grid season at Gladstone.

Not only will the Redskins performance do basketball a lot of good in Escanaba, but the Frasher-Grenholm show is for an extremely good cause. All proceeds from this attraction will go toward the expansion of an Escanaba youth athletic program.

Now, just exactly what is an expanded youth athletic program? It sounds good on paper. But what is it? As Grenholm has it planned, it means simply that proceeds from this game will be used to buy athletic equipment for the use of 10 to 14-year-olds at the junior and high school gymnasiums during off-school hours. And also for some out-of-school facilities.

That is a worthy cause that has the full approval of the Escanaba board of education. We'll tell you more about the plan later, but it is sufficient now to know that it is designed to make better use of school facilities—with the purchase of additional equipment—for the benefit of youngsters who might otherwise be working the jukebox overtime.

Cuff Notes: Harry Gagner, who spent the summer polishing up the Arcade, reports that 400 bowlers in 80 teams in 10 leagues are operating at the local bowling emporium this season. . . . And that includes 24 teams of lassies. . . . When Boston Mayor James M. Curley paid off his bet to Cleveland Mayor Thomas A. Burke—100 pots of Boston baked beans, no less—he said:

"I am sorry to lose the bet but I hope the 100 pots of Boston baked beans will lend to the character, muscle and brains of the recipients."

Mayor Burke of Cleveland had put up a wooden Indian against Curley's beans.

Very glad to receive a note yesterday from Gene Longtine, Marquette, the fellow who did such a bangup job of managing the U. P. bowling tournament in Marquette last season. . . . Longtine works in the office of the Marquette prison and as a sideline he radio broadcasts Marquette home games. . . . Glad to hear we have some readers at the prison. . . . We have been there many times—uh—uh—as a visitor, that is!

Yawkey Swings Big Ax In Effort To Rebuild Pennantless Red Sox

Boston, Oct. 14. (AP)—It's almost a cliché but Boston Red Sox owner Tom Yawkey, Vice President Eddie Collins, General Manager Joe Cronin, and Manager Joe McCarthy will be around next season—but don't bet on anyone else except possibly some of the better players.

Yawkey couldn't hide his disappointment over losing the American league pennant, and much of the blame is being passed around to Sox and farm officials.

The shakeup in the Sox organization which began before the club was beaten out in an unpre-

St. Joseph's '11' Treks To Crystal Falls

Escanaba High Seeks 5th Win Of Season

Escanaba Eskymos, who bounced back from a tough 13-12 setback at Menominee to trounce Kingsford, 24-0, in a near-gale here last Saturday afternoon, will take on another formidable opponent here this Saturday afternoon when Coach Omer Lajeunesse brings his Iron Mountain Mountaineers here for a scheduled invasion. The game will get underway at 2 p. m. Escanaba time.

Meanwhile, the St. Joseph's parochial Trojans, who were bounced rudely back to reality by Norway last week after topping Marinette Lourdes, will travel to Crystal Falls in quest of their fourth victory of the season.

The Eskymos will be seeking victory No. 5. But the main point at issue in this renewal of rivalry is the desire of the Eskymo aggregation to gain revenge for a dismal loss at Iron Mountain last year. In that encounter, if you will recall, the Eskymos looked like anything but a football team. It was a one-sided affair from start to finish, with the Mountaineers on the side that won by a sizeable margin.

Rugged Battle

This year's squad is considerably sharper, as evidenced by its showing to date and its commendable performance against Menominee two weeks ago when it outplayed the Maroons only to lose. It is expected the 1948 crew will give a much better account of itself against Iron Mountain.

The Eskymos are not concerned too much with comparative scores. They realize that Iron Mountain's 14-0 loss to Menominee last week doesn't mean a thing. For that matter, the man-on-the-street says that anyone who relies on comparative scores in U. P. prep football this season should have his head examined.

Saturday's tilt here shapes up as a rugged battle, with the Eskymos scrapping to wind up undefeated after the Menominee one-pointer, and the Mountaineers battling to hit a winning stride again after a one-sided loss to Menominee.

Only Two Unbeaten
With Iron River's victory over Stambaugh and Norway's triumph over St. Joe, Menominee and Munising emerged as the only undefeated teams in U. P. high school football. Munising has a scoreless tie with Stephenson marking its record, and Menominee has a 38-2 loss to Madison (Wis.) Edgewood on its ledger, but in U. P. competition it is undefeated.

Munising has the distinction of not having been scored on all season. Top scoring team in the U. P. is the amazing Wakefield machine, which has amassed a total of 231 points. It is all the more creditable in view of the fact no other team in the U. P. has even scored 100 points in U. P. competition.

Escanaba has the second highest scoring club in the U. P., and its opposition has been considerably tougher than Wakefield's.

Gladstone Reserves Play Rock Friday

Gladstone, Oct. 14.—The Gladstone reserve football eleven will travel to Rock tomorrow afternoon to clash with Rock high school on its home field. The team will be in charge of Coach Wallace Strom.

It will be the second of four games arranged for the local 'B' squad. Newberry was the victor in the opener a week ago but Gladstone revealed considerable improvement before the end of the game.

Yale University has more than 600 living alumni who have been awarded varsity letters in football.

NWM Basketball League To Hold Meeting Sunday

Norway, Oct. 13 (Special)—A preliminary reorganization meeting of the Northern Wisconsin Michigan Basketball league, whose championship was won last year by the Escanaba Delta Hardware, will be held in Norway Sunday, Oct. 17, beginning at 3:30 p. m., Escanaba time.

In addition to Escanaba, teams holding franchises in the league are Negaunee, Ishpeming, Hermansville, Vulcan, Norway, Iron Mountain, Crystal Falls, Iron River and Stambaugh. Representatives of teams in these communities have been invited to attend.

Managers of other teams desiring to join the league are invited to attend also.

Thomas Roos, Negaunee, is president of the league, and August Menghini, Norway, is secretary-treasurer.

'Stique Emeralds Face Game At Soo With Confidence

Manistique, Oct. 14.—Far from disheartened over two straight defeats that were extremely hard to take, the Manistique Emeralds are facing their game tomorrow evening at Sault Ste. Marie with confidence.

"The boys have profited by some pretty bad mistakes and should give a good account of themselves at the Soo," says Coach Hilton Ponto, I know that if the ball is punted into the middle of a mud puddle the way it was at Munising last Saturday, the boys are going to maneuver to get out of the bog instead of going deeper into it." That lack of headwork last week cost heavily, he says.

The Manistique boys suffered no injuries Saturday, but several are slowed down with colds. The starting lineup will be about the same as last week.

Mary Agnes in 3rd Round of Texas Meet

Fort Worth, Tex., Oct. 14 (AP)—Mrs. George (Babe) Didrickson Zaharias meets Texas' Betsy Rawls today in the third round of the Women's Texas Open here.

Yesterday Mrs. Zaharias fired a 68 to better the course record for women's par for the second straight day. Her string of eight birdies eliminated Beverly Hanson of Riverside, Cal., 5-4.

Miss Rawls defeated Betty McKinnon of Texarkana, Tex., 3-1. Medalist Polly Riley of Fort Worth meets Patty Berg of Minneapolis, Mary Agnes Wall of Menominee, Mich., plays Mrs. H. T. Willford of Sherman, Tex., who yesterday scored an upset victory over Betty Nims White of Dallas one up on the 18th. Helen Dettweiler of Dallas meets Mrs. Gordon Perrin of Eldorado, Ark.

Horace Smith Quits Spartan Grid Squad

East Lansing, Oct. 14 (AP)—The Michigan State College football team today was without the services of Horace Smith, fast-stepping Negro back from Jackson and the high point man from the team last year.

Head Coach Biggie Munn said Smith was dropped from the squad because he failed to attend practice Tuesday and Wednesday.

"Horace made his own choice," Munn said, "I hated to see him go but we must set an example. He missed practice Tuesday and we told him Wednesday to report on the practice field or leave the squad. He didn't show up, so we took his suit."

Smith gained a creditable 172 yards for the Spartans last year and was top man in the scoring department with 30 points. A star high school and college hurdler, his specialty was break-away runs.

Campus observers believed that Smith's "walkout" was a result of his poor offensive showing in State's first three games. Smith, who had been groomed at both left and right halfback, carried the ball on only four plays in the first three games, and did not gain a single yard.

He also threw two passes, one incomplete and the other intercepted.

Boudreau Will Have His Day at Illinois

Champaign, Ill., Oct. 14 (AP)—Lou Boudreau, player-manager of the world's champion Cleveland Indians, will be feted with a "Boudreau Day" by the University of Illinois Oct. 23.

Boudreau will appear between halves of the Illinois-Purdue football game at Memorial stadium.

The 31-year-old Illinois graduate will be the second former Illini athlete honored with a day in his name. The first was the fabulous Red Grange, "Galloping Ghost" of the gridiron in the 1920's. Grange was honored with a day in the late 1930's.

Eight regulars from last season's North Carolina State football team are back this season.

(NORSE) TOWER STILL MYSTERY

Recent Diggings Fail To Disclose Secret

Newport, R. I.—The famous round stone tower here, claimed to be of Viking origin by some and hotly disputed by others, has been given its first professional archaeological going-over — and it keeps its secret still. Another season's digging will be needed to come close to a settlement of the generations-old dispute, in the opinion of William Godfrey, Harvard Archaeologist who carried on the work this year.

With funds provided by an anonymous donor to the Preservation Society of Newport County, Mr. Godfrey drove a trench from 78 feet outside the tower straight through one of its arches and out the other side. Digging was carried down to bedrock, or to a layer of heavy, blue-gray clay.

Nothing of significance was found in the ground outside the tower, because of heavy grading operations late in the nineteenth century.

The tower itself stands on a foundation of tumbled boulders, which were rolled into a circular trench. On these, low masonry drums four feet in diameter were built, and on the drums the eight supporting pillars of the tower were erected. Arches carried the closed circular upper room at the top.

Mortar was a crude mixture of sand and lime, of a type that might have been made at any time from the eighth century until the invention of portland cement. The tower room had two coats of plaster, one white, one gray, of the same kind of material.

Beneath the tower was a layer of charred wood, covered thinly with soil and mixed with fallen plaster. This was left by a fire, when British soldiers burned the tower's floor during the Revolutionary War.

Digging in the soil under the tower turned up quantities of pottery and glass fragments of Colonial date, together with pennies dated from 1696 to 1700, and one Connecticut penny dated 1787, and some nails, buttons and other miscellaneous metal objects. There was nothing that could be identified as Norse, or of earlier than late seventeenth-century date.

It is known that Governor Benedict Arnold of the Colony of Rhode Island, grandfather of the well-known Revolutionary War general, had a wooden windmill on the tower. However, it is not known whether he put up the stone structure, or simply took advantage of it because it was already there.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Strukel of Milwaukee called on friends here and in Traunik last week. The Strukels are former residents of Trenary. They purchased the Charlie Maki farm a few years ago and sold it to the Laundre family last year and moved to Milwaukee.

So as of this date, the riddle of the tower, which inspired Longfellow's famous poem, "The Skeleton in Armor", and many reams of less noteworthy writing, still remains unsolved.

Veronica Lake Sued For $500 a Month To Support Mother

Los Angeles (AP) — Veronica Lake's mother claims she put her life savings into the film star's career, only to be left destitute. Mrs. Constance Veronica Keane, asking $500 monthly support in a suit against the actress, alleged that she had spent nearly $10,000 to further her daughter's theatrical climb. She charged the actress had broken off a 1943 support agreement.

In that agreement, the complaint said, Miss Lake promised to pay $200 a week "in consideration of filial love and affection" to her mother and the latter's husband, the late Hugh A. Keane, former New York newspaperman. It said Miss Lake paid $115 a week for a time, later $75, then $37.50 but nothing since last May.

Describing herself as indigent, Mrs. Keane alleged that Miss Lake earns $4,500 a week. The complaint also named the actress' husband, Director Andre De Toth, as a defendant. It asked for $500 a month plus $17,416 in back payments.

Miss Lake declined to comment on the suit, adding that she is expecting the birth of her third child shortly.

Now, that's what I call good coffee!

A cup of good coffee, savory and mellow, is one of the world's most delightful experiences. And anyone can make it! It takes some care, of course, but it's easy, if you follow these simple rules:

- It begins with a fine blend of coffee, Hills Bros. Coffee, that's rich in flavor and really fresh.
- It requires a coffee-maker that's sparkling clean. A quick rinse with hot water is not enough. A good rule is to wash your coffee-maker with soap and water every time you use it. When it gets battered and brown-beyond-cleaning, you'll be doing your coffee a favor if you replace the old coffee-maker with a new one.
- It depends on accurate measuring of water and coffee and careful timing of the brew. For coffee rich in flavor as well as strength, 2 level tablespoons of coffee are recommended for each 6 oz. cup of water.

Coffee should be in contact with water for a definite length of time, depending on the type and capacity of the coffee-maker, as well as the strength of beverage desired. After the correct timing has been determined, stick to it; otherwise results will not be uniform.

Coffee is at its best when you serve it fresh-made and piping hot (the delicate flavor is injured by cooling and reheating) . . . and when it has been brewed in a maker of proper size (you can't make 2 cups of satisfying coffee in an 8-cup maker).

Made correctly, Hills Bros. Coffee brings you a wonderful goodness that's deliciously its own. It's a blend of the world's finest coffees, and "Controlled Roasting," an exclusive Hills Bros. process, assures uniform flavor in every pound. The fragrant freshness of Hills Bros. Coffee is treasured in vacuum-packed jars and cans.

What kind of coffee-maker do you use . . . coffee-pot . . . percolator . . . vacuum-type maker . . . drip pot? Hills Bros. tell you how to get the best results with any type of coffee-maker in the 28-page booklet—"The Art of Coffee-Making." Send the coupon below for your free copy.

Morrissey, Bartlett Schooner, Groomed For Cape Verde Trade

Washington, D. C.—Add one, for a change, to the dwindling fleet of sailing ships now plying stormy seas in the ocean cargo trade.

And a distinguished old wind-jammer she is, observes the National Geographic Society, noting the re-activation of the Effie M. Morrissey. For 22 years, the two-masted, 98-foot Morrissey was home, office, and magic carpet for the late Captain Bob Bartlett of Arctic exploration renown.

Plagued by ill fortune following the death of her colorful skipper in March, 1946, the venerable schooner was burned, sunk, and counted out in 1947. Raised from her briny grave by men who knew her ingrained worth, she now hails from New Bedford, Mass., where the work of refitting her for service in the Cape Verde packet trade was completed in June.

Moves by Wind Alone

In the course of the reconditioning, the 54-year-old Morrissey cast off her auxiliaries to wind power—engine, propeller, and shaft. These have no place in the plans of the hardy Bravas, Portuguese-American seafaring men of Cape Verde Islands origin, who, now sailing her, prefer to relive the clipper days.

They will load their ship with cargo to its 120-ton rated capacity, and carry occasional paying passengers, touching ports from New England to Dakar on Africa's bulge.

Grateful of line, the Morrissey is sheathed from bow to stern in ice-withstanding greenheart. The double planking makes for a sturdiness to which Captain Bob said he more than once owed his life. Bartlett made some 30 trips on the Morrissey into Arctic and sub-arctic seas prior to World War II.

Served U. S. Navy During War
On several of those trips he took school and college students, gathering birds, plants, and animals for zoos and scientific societies. Through the war summers, 1942-

45, Captain Bob chartered the Morrissey to the United States Army Transport Corps. Serving as skipper, he supplied his Newfoundland fishermen-neighbors as crew. The schooner worked on subarctic projects, under loan to the Navy's Hydrographic Office.

Auxiliary motor, gyrocompass, fathometer, and two-way radio in turn simplified navigation for the skipper of the Morrissey, who recalled shortly before his death that he had once depended on landmarks, seals, birds, icebergs, and color and temperature of the water to tell him where he was.

He lived to marvel at radar, enabling navigation through fog and dark, but feared that it might hasten extinction of seals and whales.

Built at Essex, Mass., in 1894, the Morrissey had 75-foot masts from the pine forests of Maine. Its first decades were passed as a Grand Banks fishing schooner. Admirer friends of Captain Bob put its title in his hands.

New York, (SS)—Most patients with high blood pressure are relatively normal people and need very little in the way of doctoring, Dr. Dana W. Atchley, professor at Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons, declared at the New York Academy of Medicine graduate forum here.

These patients are the ones without heart, kidney or other complications. They should be examined about once a year to discover any signs of the usual complications. "At other times they should be left entirely to their own devices," Dr. Atchley stated. "Weekly or monthly blood pressure measurements are not only unnecessary but actually detrimental."

TIME FOR "BATTER" BREAD

Mary King's SPEEDY CARAMEL NUT "BATTER" BREAD

Soften 1 package compressed or dry granular yeast in 1/2 cup lukewarm water

Combine 1/2 cup milk, scalded; 1/4 cup shortening, melted; 1/4 teaspoon salt; 1/4 cup sugar; 1 teaspoon nutmeg; 1/2 teaspoon allspice; 2 eggs, beaten

Cool to lukewarm and add the softened yeast

Blend in 3 cups sifted King Midas Enriched Flour, a cup at a time, beat well after each addition. Cover.

Let rise in warm place (80-85° F.) until batter is light and nearly doubled. Beat well.

Combine 1/4 cup melted butter; 1/4 cup brown sugar; 1/4 cup nut meats.

Drop alternate layers of "batter" and mixture into a well-greased, tube pan. Cover and let rise until doubled in bulk, about 30 minutes.

Bake in a moderately hot oven (400° F.) for 40 to 45 minutes.

GARBAGE STRIKE REEKS HAVOC IN ROME—A strike of municipal workers—including garbage collectors—in Rome left citizens holding their noses. After seven days of non-collection, the city was littered with piles of rubbish and garbage. (Photo by NEA-Acme staff correspondent Albert Blasetti.)

Leaders Are Picked By Their Neighbors

By MARJORIE VAN DE WATER

Washington, (SS)—Regardless of who is elected to the Presidency on Nov. 2, the real leadership of the country will not be in his hands.

The real leaders of the American democracy are a nameless group, without titles, without salaries, and often without even being aware that they are leaders. They are selected without ballots by the common consent of their neighbors who put faith in their foresight and judgment.

About one man out of 20 in your own community is such a leader. It is he, and not the political speaker, who determines how his neighbors vote, either locally or for President. It is he who swings sentiment toward or away from the new bond issue or toward building a better school or raising the teacher's pay. This is true in the country. It is also true in the city.

Who Are The Leaders?

This pattern of leadership characteristic of American democracy was revealed when the U. S. Department of Agriculture Soil Conservation Service attempted to inaugurate a program of soil conservation. What the soil conservationists discovered about leadership was done long before the present political campaign. The government scientists are careful not to apply the results to politics.

Soil conservation is a strictly community undertaking. It does no good for one farmer to plow his acres on the contour, to eliminate gullies, or to plant trees and soil-holding grasses, if his next-door neighbor is going to permit overgrazing on his grassland.

And the way to get all the farmers to work together to plan and put into effect an adequate conservation program is not, it was found, for a government man to go in and tell everybody what they must do.

There are certain molders of opinion in each community. There is the newspaper editor, ably helped in its early discovery by John Cabot—only five years after Columbus's first voyage to America.

the preacher or priest, the teacher, the banker, or maybe a clubwoman. These are effective. But if you hope to enlist cooperation in an enterprise, you can't leave it to these people to carry it out for you. They influence thinking, but it is not they who produce action.

If you want community action on a program, the thing to do is to hunt up the real leaders and explain your project to them. This is done through an ecological study of the community. Dr. John P. Shea, U. S. D. A. psychologist, has found. The scientist first looks the community over to find out how the people live—their customs, occupations, economic life, religion, recreation, education.

School Is Important

In some places the school has an important role in affairs and much can be done to inform the community through it. But in another locality, the people do not "hold much with book learning" and would consider it an indignity to be invited to a meeting in the schoolhouse.

It is easy to locate the molders of opinion in the community; you just ask any one of them and he can name for you practically all the others. But to locate the leaders of action, you must ask the followers.

It is the person who has the respect of his neighbors. He is usually a man of few words—he leads mainly through what he does. His neighbors watch him. When he takes his hogs to market, they know it is the most favorable time to sell. If he plants soy beans or wheat, the neighbors would not think of putting all their land into corn.

The natural leader in America is just a little above average in intelligence, but not too different from his neighbors in this respect. He is always a man of courage, willing to try new things and take the initiative in making changes. He is a man of established soundness of judgment that other men can rely on. He is community-minded; he thinks of the welfare of his neighbors.

It takes a man about one third of a lifetime to establish leadership in a community, but it is then permanent and he usually maintains his position until death.

Without this man's nod of approval for an issue or a candidate, his followers will not budge.

Camels were first put to work in the desert area of Australia in 1840.

EARLY MAMMAL FOSSILS FOUND

Animals Lived In West In Eocene Era

Washington.—Fossils of animals that lived in Eocene time, the dawn period of the Age of Mammals, have been brought back to the Smithsonian Institution by Dr. Charles L. Gazin, who spent the summer digging for them in western Wyoming and Montana.

Included in the collection is an excellent skull of the little eophipus, the terrier-sized horse that had individual hooflets on each of its separate toes. To zoologists this animal is known as Hyracotherium.

Another notable find is the skeleton of an animal about the size of a sheep. Although it had clawed feet, it is believed to be distantly related to the hooted animals of the present time. Its scientific name is Meniscotherium.

Near Pipestone Springs, Mont., Dr. Gazin worked in deposits of the second major period of mammalian time, known as the Oligocene. Here he found bones of numerous small animals, four-runners of present-day rodents, dogs and cats, moles and shrews. Most familiar fossils of this age are those of huge, rhinoceros-sized beasts; good fossils of small Oligocene mammals are much rarer.

Earthquakes in Alaska 50 years ago caused some sections of the coast to rise as much as 50 feet.

It is believed that Niagara Falls will wear its way back to Lake Erie in about 5,000 years.

Newfoundland Plans Union With Canada

Washington, D. C.—Canada may get a 10th province before the United States adds a 49th state.

Newfoundlanders recently voted in favor of joining their rocky, cod-rich North Atlantic island to the Dominion of Canada. Negotiations now under way point to Dominion Day, July 1, 1949, as Canada's date for making Newfoundland one of the family.

Visitors landing at Newfoundland on flights to Europe have expressed surprise upon learning that the bleak land is not part of Canada. They are always reminded by the proud islanders that their country is the oldest colony in the British Empire and was once a dominion itself.

Hard Times
Because of hard financial times in the early 1930's, Newfoundland became the first and only British dominion to surrender commonwealth rank and return to colony status, notes the National Geographic Society. Improved conditions during World War II aroused ed the old urge for more freedom—either as full-fledged dominion or as a province of Canada.

When Canada accepts the new province, large-scale geographic and economic changes will take place. The huge dominion will move 200 miles nearer its mother country, for Newfoundland juts that far into the Atlantic beyond Canada's present easternmost point.

Canada's area—already considerably larger than that of the U. S.—will be increased by one-twenty-fourth, or 152,734 square miles. This figure includes the 110,000 square miles of Labrador, Newfoundland's dreary coastal dependency that stretches northwest along the North American mainland to Hudson Strait.

In population, Newfoundland will add less to Canada. Its 318,000 inhabitants, including about 5,000 in Labrador, are equal only to one-third the population of Montreal, the dominion's largest city.

In resources the new province would give Canada one of the world's greatest fishing grounds and a growing wood pulp and paper industry. Perhaps more important, inland Labrador contains an iron ore field believed to be as rich as and much more extensive than the fabulous Mesabi deposits in Minnesota.

Air Age Position
Its position, especially in an air age, gives Newfoundland wartime and peace-time importance. It is the nearest North American land to Europe, lying only 1,375 miles from Ireland. A plane flying from New York to London is one-third of the way there before losing sight of the Newfoundland coast.

The United States, Canada, and private airlines have built great airports on the island or in Labrador. Gander and Goose Bay, two of them, have become familiar news datelines.

Even before the day of the airplane, Newfoundland was well established as a communications and transportation center. The pioneer Atlantic cable was laid in 1858 between Newfoundland and Ireland, and the first transoceanic wireless signal was sent in 1901 to Newfoundland from England.

Small Town Doctor

THE demand for small town doctors is growing. To combat the trend of specialization, the medical profession is encouraging newly trained physicians to set themselves up as general practitioners in rural areas. A recent survey by the American Medical Association's Committee on Rural Service showed that 1,173 towns are seeking general practitioners.

A typical small town doctor is Lee T. Hoyt, M.D., 53, of Roseville, Ill., population 1,100. Selected by the Illinois State Medical Society as its most typical rural practitioner, Dr. Hoyt has practiced medicine in his territory, which includes sections of four counties, for 27 years. The only physician in Roseville, he drives an average of 100 miles a day visiting patients in homes and hospital. On many afternoons he sees as many as 70 persons at his office. Dr. Hoyt's busy routine is pictured here.

ANOTHER CALL. Carrying his case, Dr. Hoyt leaves his car and walks up the path to visit a patient in Roseville.

PATIENTLY WAITING. An office full of patients greets Dr. Lee T. Hoyt as he opens the door of his consultation room to call in the next patient.

ON THE JOB. Dr. Hoyt makes a blood pressure test for Mrs. Lawrence Lynch in her home in Media, near Roseville, as daughter, Marie, watches.

LABORATORY REPORT on a patient's blood analysis is gone over by Dr. Hoyt with medical technologist John Fielding at Monmouth, Ill., hospital.

MEDICAL STAFF meetings in Monmouth is attended by Dr. Hoyt, second from left, front, who, with other doctors, listen to Dr. J. C. Sherrick discuss research he's conducting.

ON ROSEVILLE'S Main Street, Dr. Hoyt, right, stops to chat with town's mayor, druggist, policeman and two pastors.

RELAXING, Dr. Hoyt and Mrs. Hoyt discuss a science item he is reading. He spends spare summer hours growing roses; in the fall he hunts.

NEW REVISION GROUP URGED

Study Of Constitution Is Advocated

Ann Arbor—Making use of a "more expedient method" of revising the Michigan Constitution is suggested in a study made by the University of Michigan Bureau of Government.

Prepared by Claude R. Tharp, research associate, the report cites the obstacles and objections to piecemeal amendments and the calling of a constitutional convention. The "more expedient method" is declared to be the naming of a commission, either by the governor or the legislature, to study the constitution and suggest amendments to the voters.

He cautioned that the revision commission should be provided with adequate funds, including compensation for the members, and that "sufficient time should be allowed to inform the public of the issues involved."

"The commission should assume leadership in the organization of citizens' study groups throughout the state, it should gather facts, and permit conflicting groups to present their arguments to the commission," Tharp suggested.

Revision of the constitution by piecemeal amendments over the past 40 years has not produced the most satisfactory results, he declared.

"Many of these amendments were proposed and adopted within a period of six to nine months," Tharp pointed out. "Much of the information of the issues involved reached the public through groups which were to be directly benefited by the change. Certain of these amendments were designed to meet emergency situations and were too frequently passed without sufficient study to realize the long run effect."

He cited three major disadvantages and obstacles which make the constitutional convention procedure difficult:

1. There is only a remote possibility of obtaining the necessary majority vote to call a convention. Only two of ten proposals to call such a convention in Michigan from 1849 to 1947 have received the required majority.

2. The time required to call a convention and then to submit a revised draft of the constitution to the voters is so long that the governor and leaders of the Legislature, with only two-year terms of office, are discouraged from undertaking any program or revision.

3. A combination of opposing factions can easily be built up into a majority against all the proposals submitted. This usually means that many real improvements adopted by a convention suffer defeat because they are bound up with more controversial proposals.

CHINA CLOSETS AVAILABLE

Corner china closets, including reproductions of many classical styles, are being manufactured and may be installed in the home with funds obtainable from qualified lending institutions.

A widely popular feature of many dining rooms, china closets of Colonial and other designs serve as functional pieces of built-in furniture and at the same time contribute to the decorative scheme of the home.
